MRS. DAVID ALAN HOMESLEY
Jacklyn Celeste Blanton

Blanton-Homesley

Jacklyn Celeste Blanton and David Alan Homesley were united in marriage Saturday, April 3, at 7 p.m. at the First Baptist Church in Cherryville. Dr. Daniel A. Featherstone officiated at the candlelight, double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack L. Blanton of Cherryville. Her grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Sellers of Cherryville and Mr. and Mrs. Sidney H. Blanton of Kings Mountain. A graduate of Bessemer City High School, she attended Gardner-Webb College, Boiling Springs, and is employed by Carolina Care Center, Cherryville.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Broughton C. Homesley Jr. of Cherryville. His grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. B.C. Homesley Sr. of Cherryville and the late Mr. and Mrs. Hood Bridges of Kings Mountain. He is a graduate of Cherryville High School, attended Appalachian State University, Boone, and is employed by Harris Teeter in Cherryville.

A program of wedding music was presented by John Carroll of Shelby, organist, and Mark Bridges of Bessemer City, vocal soloist.

The altar was lit by candlelight from brass candelabra holding pink bridal roses, Fuji mums, cushion poms, purple stock, gypsophila, purple stative and white roses. Boston ferns and Ficus trees were on the altar, centered by the kneeling bench. Each window held a lighted candle in a hurricane lamp encircled with English ivy and white silk flowers.

Escorted to the altar by her father, and given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a formal gown of white satin featuring a Sabrina neckline and basque waist. Lace, accented with hand-sewn pearls and sequins, covered the fitted bodice. A bridal satin pouf at the shoulder was followed to the wrist by a long, fitted sleeve of English lace. The full circular skirt with lace pyramids accented with pearls and sequins ended in a cathedral-length train encircled and embellished with window pane motifs of re-embroidered Schiffler lace, hand-sewn pearls and sequins.

Her headpiece of illusion was finger-tip length and was gathered to an illusion pouf attached to a wreath of white satin leaves and silk flowers with sprays of pearls and sequins. She carried a bouquet of bridal pink roses, white roses, gypsophila, miniature white carnations, purple stative, English ivy and cascading white Star Gazer lilies.

Amy McRary was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Marian Featherstone, Kelly Lawrence, both of Cherryville, Candace Paxton of Charlotte, Christina Ramsey of Shelby, cousin of the bride, Monica Scism of Kings Mountain, cousin of the bridegroom, and Millicent Turner of Cherryville.

They wore formal sheath gowns of amethyst satin featuring a Sabrina neckline, basque waist enhanced with a peplum, and short sleeves draped with pleated satin. Pearls attached at the shoulder to a pearl and bugle beaded applique extended to the low V back. The honor attendant's bouquet was of pink bridal roses, miniature carnations, gypsophila, purple stative, English ivy, centered with a white Star Gazer lily with cascading white roses. Bridesmaids' bouquets were of bridal pink and white roses, purple stative, gypsophila, miniature carnations and centered with a white Star Gazer lily.

Broughton C. Homesley Jr. was his son's best man. Serving as groomsmen were William Holt, Edwin Homesley, brother of the bridegroom, Steve Homesley, uncle of the bridegroom, and Jeff McRary, all of Cherryville, Marcus Scism of Kings Mountain, cousin of the bridegroom and Elton Wright of Concord, cousin of the bride.

For the ceremony the bride's mother wore a two-piece soft pink ensemble with a circular chiffon skirt. The matching pink jacket was overlaid with white Chantilly lace, featured a V neckline and the hem was trimmed with silk venise lace with a pearl cluster at the waist.

The bridegroom's mother chose a two-piece ensemble of periwinkle designed with a pleated crepe skirt and floral brocade jacket trimmed with lace and accented with iridescent sequins. They both wore shoulder corsages of pink roses.

The grandmothers wore corsages of bridal white roses.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Jerry Thornburg. Jadine Ramsey of Shelby, aunt of the bride, kept the guest register and wedding programs were given out by Joshua Ramsey of Shelby and Matthew Smith of Kings Mountain, both cousins of the bride.

Following a trip to Myrtle Beach, S.C., the couple will be at home in Cherryville.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained at a reception in the church fellowship hall. Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Don Lawrence. The reception area was decorated with Boston ferns, and two lighted silver candelabra with arrangements of white snapdragons, pink roses, white poms, purple stock were on lace-covered serving tables.

Assisting in serving were Peggy Wright of Concord, Krista Smith of Kings Mountain, Joyce Brown of Charlotte and Linda Sellers of Cherryville aunts of the bride, Ann Scism of Kings Mountain and Cindy Homesley of Cherryville, aunts of the bridegroom. Junior assistants were Blain Eaker, Jennifer Lamoureux and Meline Miller. Music for the reception was presented by Terry White of Shelby.
