

KEY TO CITY - Mayor Scott Neisler explains the key to the city during third grade classes at Bethware School recently. The classes have been studying national, state and local government.

Paris study trip slated

Interested in studying in Paris but worried about your French language skills. The University of North Carolina at Charlotte has made arrangements for its students, as well as those from other institutions, to study in Paris this summer with courses taught entirely in English.

Cost is $2,999, which includes transportation tuition, lodging, local transportation and other expenses. Meals and optional weekend excursions are not included in the basic price.

For further information call UNC Charlotte's Study Abroad Office at 547-2464 between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. weekdays.

■ Edward Jon Clark has been named Associate Vice President for Enrollment Management at Gardner-Webb University. He comes to Boiling Springs from Lenoir-Rhyne College, where he was Dean of Enrollment Management.
