

Senior Games set at G-W

The ninth annual Senior Games for adults 55 and over will begin Monday, April 26, at Gardner-Webb University in Boiling Springs.

The program offers annual competition as well as year round fitness activities, including wellness and workshops and training clinics. The Silver Striders Walking Club and Silver Arts Festival are also part of the Senior Games program that encourages healthy lifestyles.

A person's age on August 1, 1993 will determine the category of competition. Categories are: 55-59, 60-64, 65-69, 70-74, 75-79, 80-84, 85-89 and 90 plus. Men and women do not compete against each other.

The Senior Games events include badminton, basketball shooting, billiards, bowling, croquet, cycling, field events, including discus, shotput, standing long jump, running long jump, football throw, and golf, horseshoes, putt putt, shuffleboard, softball throw, spin casting, swimming, table tennis, tennis, track events, dashes and runs, 1500-meter and 5K race walks and the Silver Striders fun walk.

Winners in each event, except fun walk, will receive gold, silver and bronze medals. These winners will then be qualified to participate in the state finals in Raleigh in the fall.

The $4 registration fee includes two lunches and as many events as desired. April 12 the fee is $5. Call 734-0447 for more information.

Mountaineer cindermen run second

The Kings Mountain High boys track team finished second for the third week in a row Thursday at Shelby.

The host Lions won the Southwestern 3-A Conference tri-meet with 92 points. Kings Mountain scored 58.5 and R-S Central 31.5.

Shon Byers won two first places for the Mountaineers. He threw the shot 41'7" and the discus 124'10". Jeremy Martin was first in the pole vault with a leap of 11'6" and Clay Corry won the 400 meters in 54.36 seconds.

Finishing second for KM were Calvin Logan in the long jump (19'5"), Justin Jones in the high jump (5'6") Bron Smart in the shot put (41'6"), Logan in the 100 meters (11.88), Shane Logan in the 300 intermediate hurdles (47.29), Brent Roberts, Corry, Tyreece Dixon and Jarvis Bell in the 800 meter relay (1:42.20), and Roberts, Corry, Jody Putnam and Shane Logan in the 1600 meter relay.

The Mountaineers return home Thursday to face Shelby and East Rutherford.

Clay Corry clears the hurdles in for Kings Mountain's Mountaineers in last week's Southwestern 3-A Conference track meet. The Mountaineers host Shelby and East Rutherford today before taking a break for Easter.

3 on 3 basketball tournament set

Area residents are invited to participate in the 3 on 3 Hot Hoops basketball tournament will be held at the Waymer Park facility in Huntersville April 17-18.

The tournament is a one-day competition, depending on which age group a team competes in.

Saturday's action will be only for those aged 15-17 years old, with the 18 and over participants playing on Sunday. Play starts at 1 p.m. each day, and impressive trophies will be presented to each player on the winning team.

An optional free throw contest

John Dilling bowls 415 set

John Dilling rolled a 149 line and 415 set in Mixed Duckpin Bowling League action Tuesday night at Dilling Heating.

His outstanding effort led his team to a four-game sweep over R.W. Hullender. Hullender led his team with a 120-323.

First place Mark Midgette had to settle for a split with Jack Barrett. Faye Mitchem had a 111 line and and 3-point shootout is also being held on Friday, April 16 at 7 p.m. to kick off the event. It will also have two age divisions.

The tournament is a benefit for the non-profit Storm football team, which was ranked #3 in the nation in 1992. Proceeds will help the team fund its 1993 season which begins in July.

Entry fee is only $40 per team, and each team is guaranteed at least three games.

For more information, contact Jim Brannon at 704-896-0023 after 6 p.m.

285 set for Midgette and Jack Barrett had a 128-329 and Jud Spargo a 112-323 for Barrett.

With just one week of action remaining, Midgette has first place clinched with a 39-21 record. Dilling is 31-29, Barrett 29-31 and Hullender 21-39. Midgette will meet Hullender for a roll-off for the championship in two weeks.
