ALISA DANIELLE ADKINS
Alisa Danielle Adkins, one-month-old daughter of James Daniel and Lisa Biddix Adkins of Lakeland, Ohio, died July 22, 1993 at the home of her grandmother at Route 3, Box 552, Kings Mountain.
Alisa was born June 20, 1993 in Portsmouth, Ohio.
In addition to her parents, she is survived by her maternal grandparents, Isaac and Faye Bell of Kings Mountain; paternal grandmother, Ruth Adkins of Lathan, Ohio; three brothers, Jeffery Waters and Brandon Waters of Kings Mountain and James Adkins of Lakeland, Ohio; and a sister, Chasity Burns of Kings Mountain. She was preceded in death by her grandfathers, Don Biddix and Les Adkins.
A graveside service was held Saturday at 2:30 p.m. at Mount Beulah Baptist Church in Cherryville.

to Don McAbee and was reelected for consecutive terms until he decided to run for the mayor's seat when Moss retired in 1987. Voters denied him his long-time dream to serve as mayor of both towns.
"Norman was dedicated to the job and never played special interests," said Jim Childers, his long-time friend and former co-Council member in Kings Mountain. "Norman always sided with the majority and tried to do what was best for all."
Childers said that King attended state seminars and National League of Cities to broaden his knowledge of city government.
A Kings Mountain native, he was the son of the late Ullis Claude and Lela Barnett King. He was a former longtime member of Second Baptist Church, where he directed the music program for 17 years. He was also a former member of First Baptist Church of Kings Mountain. King and his wife, Ruth Ware King, lived in Sylva briefly after he took early retirement in 1981. King worked for Southern Bell 33 years in the network department. They moved to Grover in 1988 where they joined Grover First Baptist Church and King became active in Grover Lions Club and town government. He was a World War II Navy veteran. His hobby was fishing with longtime friend Ken Jenkins, camping with his family and music.

King served from 1989-91 as a Grover town commissioner and led the effort to get the first sanitation truck for the town. During his tenure the addition to city hall was built. King ran for mayor but lost the election to Mayor Ronald Queen two years ago.
King suffered a brain hemorrhage and a stroke April 19. Surviving, in addition to his wife, are two sons, Jack King of Charlotte and Bruce King of Kings Mountain; two daughters, Norma Pettus of Kings Mountain and Joyce Allen of Grover; one sister, Hazel Webster of Pineville; five grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

The funeral was conducted Wednesday at 3 p.m. at Kings Mountain First Baptist Church. Rev. John Sloan, Rev. John Bridges and Rev. Eugene Land officiated. Burial was in Mountain Rest Cemetery.
