'Lady' stops wrestling match

Outside interference is becoming the norm at Professional Wrestling Federation matches at the Kings Mountain National Guard Armory.

For the second month in a row, outside interference cost Kings Mountain's Rich Scruggs, better known as the American G.I., a victory in a Saturday night match with The Enforcer Terry Austin. And now, the G.I.'s partner, The See Wrestling, 3-B

Appointments announced at Cleveland County YMCA

The Cleveland County Family YMCA has hired Dawn Anthony as Officer Manager/Membership Director and Amber Williams as Family Program Director.

Anthony, a native of Cleveland County, has over 11 years work experience in Cleveland and Gaston counties. A graduate of Appalachian State with a degree in education, she has been Executive Director with the Cleveland County Girls' Club and Gaston County Alliance for Children and Youth. She has also been a Family Resource Coordinator with the Cleveland County Communities and Schools. Mrs. Anthony will handle all office procedures and coordinate the YMCA membership retention program.

Williams, a native of Union County, has been a resident of Cleveland County for one year. She is a graduate of Sun Valley High School and has a marketing degree from Central Piedmont Community College. Mrs. Williams has served as a summer camp counselor at the Harris YMCA in Charlotte, has worked as the Head After school Coordinator, Site Director, and Assistant Camp Director with Simmons Family YMCA in Charlotte, and most recently was the Camp Director at the first Cleveland County Family YMCA Summer Camp. She will program Indian Guides, pre-school, teen and family programs.

The YMCA is taking membership applications, and will open the doors to its new facility in October. The new YMCA is located at 404 E. Marion St., Shelby. For more information call 484-9622.
