

FATHER-SON TEAM - Blair Williams lines up a putt as his partner and father, Joe, looks on in the Kayla Newton Golf Tournament Sunday at Woodbridge Golf Links.

Patrol will be out in force

With the increased traffic expected on the highways during the upcoming Labor Day holiday, the North Carolina State Highway Patrol will be out in force, as usual, to assist motorists with safe travel, according to Colonel R.A. Barefoot, Commander of the State Highway Patrol.

Additional emphasis will be placed on all areas of enforcement, with vigorous pursuit of the impaired driver the top priority. Speeders, a leading cause of accidents, and other drivers who violate motor vehicle laws will be cited as well.

As on all major holidays, the Highway Patrol will participate in Operation C.A.R.E. The nationwide Combined Accident Reduction Effort by state police and highway patrol agencies uses high visibility and enforcement to reduce accidents on our nation's highways.

The Labor Day holiday weekend period begins at 6 p.m. on Friday, September 3, and ends at midnight on Monday, September 6. Last year, 5 people were killed and 1,266 were injured on N.C. highways during the same period.

Free business counseling set in September in Shelby

The Small Business and Technology Development Center at Western Carolina University's Center for Improving Mountain Living will offer free business counseling sessions in Shelby on Wednesdays, Sept. 15 and 29. The sessions will be held at the Chamber of Commerce. The Sept. 15 session will be from 1-4 p.m. and the Sept. 29 session will be from 9 a.m.-12 noon. Call 487-8521 for an appointment. The sessions involve one-to-one counseling with an experienced counselor familiar with small business operations and problems.

The one-hour sessions are confidential and open to individuals who operate existing businesses or those interested in starting a small business. Services provided include start-up counseling, assistance in preparing business financial plans to support loan applications, marketing surveys, patent search and product feasibility assessment. Also, the SBTDC offers counseling through the Procurement Technical Assistance Program to help small companies do business with the federal government.
