Meet the candidates Sept. 30 at City Hall

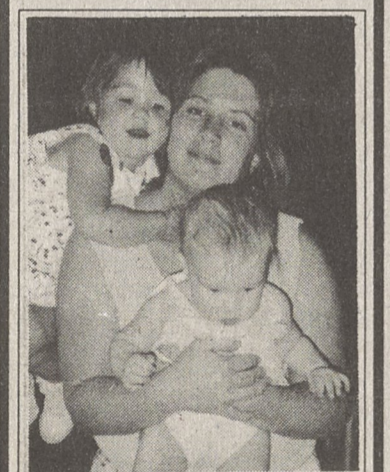

The Kings Mountain Chamber of Commerce will host an after-hours get together for local voters to meet candidates for City Council and School Board races Thursday, Sept. 30 from 5:30-7 p.m. in the lobby of City Hall.

Ruby Alexander, chairman of the planning committee, said this will be an informal gathering and no forum-type questions will be asked. However, citizens are urged to talk to candidates one-on-one to learn how they stand on certain issues.

School Board and City Council members who are not running for election are also being invited to the meeting.
