

KM woman entertains tennis stars

Twenty members of the Grand Bahama Tennis Association were entertained by Katherine Hardy at a cookout Saturday evening at her home on Countryside Road.

The tennis players, along with 200 Bahamians from Nassau and Freeport, were in the area to attend the Davis Cup Tennis Tournament held at Old Providence Racquet Club in Charlotte.

After the cookout, Hardy presented the guests with a gift inscribed with "You's Got A Friend in Kings Mountain, NC."

Annie Lee Mitchem and Isabell Brown prepared all the specialty items and Henry Gilmore was responsible for the grill. Also attending were Mr. and Mrs. Toby Williams, Melba Clinton, Wanda and Ashley Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. Andre Raye, Myrthel Crowel and friend Octavia, Gail Roseboro, Shelia Woods, Ahmad Daniels and friend Dee and Natalie Gibbens.
