CPHP to expand into Kings Mountain area

Carolina Physicians' Health Plan, Inc. (CPHP) based in Morrisville, N.C., is expanding its operations statewide. This expansion will include Shelby, Kings Mountain and all of Cleveland County. CPHP, created in 1985, is one of the fastest growing Health Maintenance Organizations in North Carolina.

Most of the advance details about President Clinton's health care reform package predicts a big role for HMOs because of their emphasis on cost-containment and preventive health care.

CPHP focused its early growth in the Raleigh-Durham area, but in the last year has expanded rapidly east and west of the Triangle area.
