

Faces in Kings Mountain Christmas parade

The annual Kings Mountain Christmas parade, sponsored by the Parks and Recreation Department, was held Saturday. Despite a light drizzle which began falling midway through the parade, it was well-received by the approximately 3,000 spectators as well as the parade participants.

More than 135 units, including children, dance clubs, dignitaries, beauty queens, and, of course, Santa Claus, participated.

Photos by Gary Stewart

