Hawkins honored at bridal shower

A variety of lingerie accessories were presented to Miss Hawkins including gifts from the bride-elect's mother, Barbara Hawkins, and her future mother-in-law, Janet Smith.

A hostess gift was given along with a ceramic basket of soaps, bath lotions, bath beads, and washcloths by Leslie Dover, Kim Roper, Marsha Ware, Page Wells and Andrea Tucker.

Party pickups of ham and cheese delight rolls, cheese ball and crackers, BBQ wieners, vegetables and dips, cherry cheese cake and soft drinks were served as guests arrived.

Miss Hawkins became Mrs. Marvin Smith at a 3 p.m. ceremony on April 2 at Boyce Memorial ARP Church.

The bride is a 1989 graduate of Kings Mountain High School and a 1993 graduate of Appalachian State University with a degree in Elementary Education. She is a fourth grade teacher at Grover Elementary School.

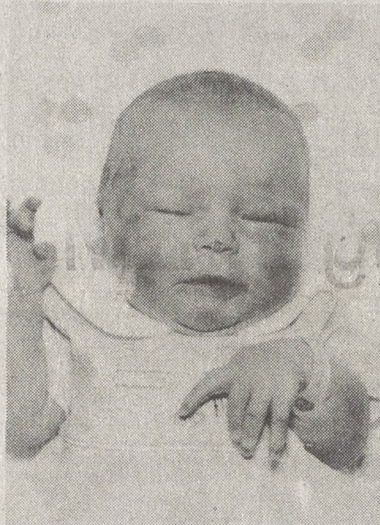

KMJA looking for volunteers

Kings Mountain Hospital Junior Auxiliary is looking for volunteers over the age of 15 to spend two hours each week at the hospital.

New male and female volunteers are invited to an orientation program on June 3 at the hospital.

Mandy Jones is president of the group and Amy Dixon is vice-president. To volunteer, call Dot Ham at the hospital, 739-3601.

Volunteers provide extra services that add to the comfort, care and happiness of the hospitalized person. They also supplement the activities of the regular staff, by relieving them of duties not requiring professional training, thus allowing more time for staff to spend with patients.
