Free basketball shoot sponsored by CODAP

A free basketball shoot-off featuring prizes for incoming seventh, eighth and ninth graders will be held by CODAP Teen Center Tuesday from 2-4 p.m. at Kings Mountain Community Center.

Director Anne Gray said that basketballs, shirts and pizzas will go to the winners of various competitions including low hoop throws and three on three teams. Players will qualify for the competitions by shooting five balls. A best of 10 free throws and hot shots competition are the fun events on tap.

Students must show an ID card at the door.

Gray said that parents can volunteer to help in the event and are encouraged to call her at 481-1752.
