Junior Haley Bridges is G-W Scholar

Gardner-Webb University has announced that Haley Bridges of Kings Mountain is among 400 students who have been accepted into Gardner-Webb's newly-established Scholars program.

The Scholars program honors high school juniors who have demonstrated exceptional academic achievement and strong leadership potential by guaranteeing those students a $1,000 scholarship if they choose to attend Gardner-Webb University at Boiling Springs.

J.J. Downey earns $1,000 scholarship

James J. Downey of Kings Mountain has been awarded a college scholarship of up to $1,000 by the Independent Insurance Agents of North Carolina.

Downey is a sophomore at Wake Forest University where he is pursuing studies in the classical languages department. He is the son of Glenda Downey.

Downey was sponsored for the award by B.F. Maner Insurance Agency of Kings Mountain. Judging for the scholarships is conducted by a panel of independent trustees. Recipients must be from North Carolina and pursuing a four-year degree in any state. Former winners may renew their scholarships during four years of undergraduate school as long as they qualify.
