Shear receives scholarship to Livingstone

Livingstone College president Dr. Bernard W. Franklin has announced that Burns High School graduate Jamie Shear has received an Excellence Merit Scholarship.

The scholarship is a component of Livingstone's Center for Teaching Excellence Merit Scholarship Program which has attracted national attention. The center seeks to fill the void of African-American male teachers. In exchange for the renewable $9,000 scholarship Shear must commit to three years of teaching in the North Carolina School System, maintain a 3.0 GPA and carry at least 15 hours per semester.

Shear is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Shear of Shelby. He was a member of the Student Council, Violence Prevention, Junior Council, Chorus, DECA and Honors Chorus. He is a member of St. Peter Missionary Baptist Church.
