Tryon reunion

A group of ex-Tryon High school students would like to organize a 10-year reunion.

Anyone who attended the school or worked there between 1950 and 1959 is encouraged to contact the group.

The gathering will be held at Shady Grove Baptist Church Family Life Center, Hwy 274 W., Cherryville. A meal will be catered at a cost of $10 per person. Participants may bring a guest.

Anyone interested should make reservations by sending a check to Nita Wright, P.O. Box 785, Cherryville, N.C. 28021, or call Prue at 704-735-7727, Doris at 704-867-7019 or Mabel at 704-629-5508.

Dress will be casual and there is no smoking or alcohol in the building.

Celanese safety awards

The Hoechst Celanese Sou-Tex Plant in Mount Holly celebrated winning the prestigious Chemical Manufacturers Association group III Lamont du Pont Safety Award for 1993 with an on the house breakfast recently during National Safety Week.

The CMA award is given to companies in three size categories that have demonstrated the best improvement in reducing occupational injury and illness incidence rates over the preceding five years.

From 1989 to 1993, Hoechst Celanese reduced its total OSHA recordable incidence rate 57 percent, its lost work day rate 58 percent and its lost-time days away from work by 63 percent.

Congressman sets office hours Tuesday

A representative of U.S. Congressman Alex McMillan will visit Kings Mountain and Cherryville to meet with 9th District residents and discuss problems with federal government agencies or concerns about legislative matters before the Congress.

McMillan's representatives customarily hold Kings Mountain and Cherryville office hours on the first Monday of the month. However, because the Fourth of July holiday falls on the first Monday in July, this visit is set for Tuesday.

The Congressman's representative will be in Kings Mountain from 9:30 a.m. until noon in the first floor Council Chambers at Kings Mountain City Hall, 101 W. Gold Street.

McMillan's representative will meet with constituents in the office of the Mayor, first floor, Cherryville City Hall, 116 S. Mountain St., Tuesday from 2-4 p.m.

"I encourage 9th District residents to meet with my representative to keep me apprised of their difficulties involving any federal government departments or agencies, including Social Security, the Department of Veterans Affairs, the branches of the military, the Internal Revenue Service, and others," said McMillan.

Kimel received her master's degree in nursing from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. She is also certified in oncology and nursing administration. She has more than 20 years of oncology experience which includes work as an oncology nurse clinician, oncology patient educator, chemotherapy nurse, and nurse consultant for HIV and Hospice patients.

Kimel and her husband reside in Gastonia.
