

New non-fiction at Mauney Memorial Library

New non-fiction on the shelves of Jacob S. Mauney Memorial Library:

AGING

Shala, Ken. American Guidance for Seniors and their Caregivers (Career Press, 1993).

This is an indispensable guide to Social Security, Medicare and other vital benefits, services and financial assistance for senior Americans. The author is a nationally recognized advocate for senior Americans and a leading authority on the many public and private benefits and programs available.

Simmons, J. L. 67 Ways to Protect Seniors from Crime (Henry Holt and Company, 1993).

If you are a senior you need not live your life in fear. By learning certain habits and taking certain preventative measures, you can reduce your risk of being a victim by as much as 90 percent. The author, a criminology expert, shows the elderly how to live safer, more secure lives by eliminating the opportunity for crime to occur.

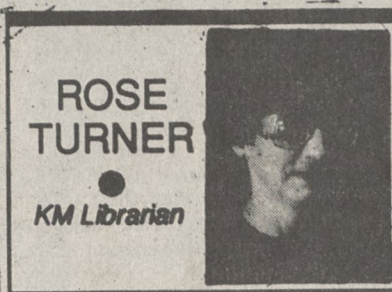

ARTS AND CRAFTS

Frew, Timothy W. Great Wreath Ideas (Smithmark, 1992).

As a response to the rigors of modern society, more and more people are harkening back to a time when life was simple. From rustic interior design to revival of handicrafts, people are becoming fascinated with all things associated with the country life. Along with other traditional crafts, the art of wreath making is enjoying a renaissance. This book includes an explanation of basic wreath bases, tools needed and techniques involved.

Nash, John and Gerald Fieuss. Practical Calligraphy (Smithmark, 1992).

This is a comprehensive, fully illustrated instructional handbook that provides all the essential information to enable the reader to become proficient in calligraphy, the traditional art of beautiful handwriting.

Westland, Pamela. The Complete Flower Arranger (Smithmark, 1992).

This book contains all the techniques necessary to create stunning floral designs throughout the year. Divided into three practical and easy to use sections, the book covers the fundamentals of successful flower designs, guiding the beginner through the basic techniques to more ambitious arrangements for weddings, holidays and other special occasion.

COOKING

Lacalamita, Tom. The Ultimate Bread Machine Cookbook (Simon & Schuster, 1993).

For once, why don't you step into the kitchen and let someone else do the work? Just select your favorite bread recipe, add the ingredients, push a button, and relax while you wait for your loaf of fresh baked bread. This book contains more than 100 irresistible fool proof recipes tested in all the most popular models of bread machines.

Flagg, Fannie. Fannie Flagg's Original Whistlestop Cafe Cookbook (Fawcett Columbine, 1993).

Fannie Flagg loves the little cafe from her Alabama childhood that was the model for the cafe in her novel. Now she joyfully shares these recipes along with some wonderful observations about food and the cafe.

Rahberg, Lindon and Lois Conway. The Bread Magic Book of Helpful Hints (St. Martin's Press, 1993).

Here is the ultimate bread machine baker's companion, offering solutions to dozens of common problems and pitfalls for use of every bread machine and model on the market. The author explains how to choose the right bread machine for your needs, to adapt favorite recipes, and make new adjustments that yield major results.

GRANT WRITING

Blum, Laurie. The Most Complete Guide to Getting A Grant (Poseidon Press, 1993).

America's foremost fund-raising expert tells you everything you need to know about applying for and getting grants. The author takes you step by step through the entire process and offers instructive examples and success stories from his own extensive experience.

Chelkis, George. The Action Guide to Government Grants, Loans and Giveaways (Perigee Books, 1993).

Business people, commercial real estate investors, home buyers, researchers, students, artists and non profit groups can all benefit from federal, state and private funding. The author cuts through the red tape confusion and explains how easy it can be for those who qualify to obtain much needed money and assistance.

ANTIQUES

Schroeder's Antique Price Guide (Collections Books, 1994).

This guide encompasses nearly 700 categories of items and includes detailed description, value and background information. It is

Arrowood wins Navy commendation

Navy Petty Officer Second Class John T. Arrowood, son of Danny W. and Janice M. Arrowood of Bessemer City, recently received a Letter of Commendation.

Arrowood was cited for superior performance of duty while assigned aboard the submarine USS Phoenix, homeported in Norfolk, Va.

He is a 1988 graduate of Bessemer City High School and joined the Navy in March 1989.

Carroll, Robert aboard USS Deyo

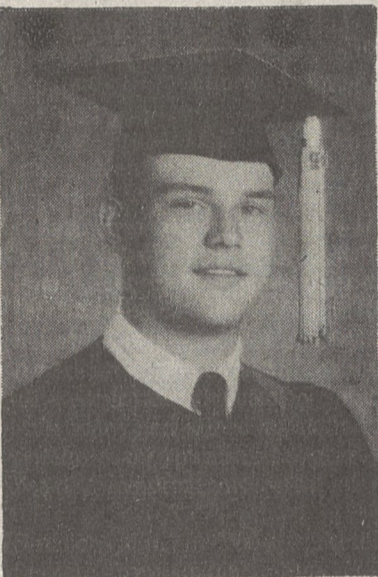

Navy Petty Officer Third Class Larry D. Carroll, son of Linda C. Ernst and Larry L. Carroll of Kings Mountain, and Navy Petty Officer Third Class Francis J. Robert, whose wife, Betty, is the daughter of Ken and Christine Pennington of Kings Mountain, are deployed aboard the destroyer USS Deyo, homeported in Charleston, SC.

They recently participated in the commemoration of the 50th anniversary of D-Day.

During the commemoration their ship visited Milford-Haven, England, and La Harve, France, and has now joined the USS Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean.

Robert is a 1990 graduate of Hugh C. Williams High School in Canton, NY and joined the Navy in June 1990.

Carroll, a 1990 graduate of Kings Mountain High School, joined the Navy in June 1990.

SHANE DAVIS

Shane Davis tapped by 'Who's Who'

Robert Shane Davis has been selected for membership in "Who's Who Among American High School Students."

The prestigious honor is based on Davis' academic average while he was a student at Kings Mountain High School from which he graduated in May.

During his high school career, Davis was active in VICA Club and served as president of Carpentry his senior year. He also was involved in set construction for the senior play and the school musical and was a member of the National Vocational Technical Honor Society, Beta Club and Masquers.

He is currently stationed at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. in the Army National Guard. Davis plans a career in the military.

During his high school career he was active in the Grover Rescue Squad which was rated best squad in the state last year.

Shane is the son of Bobby Davis of Shelby and Janet White of Blacksburg, SC and grandson of Juanita Pruette of Grover. He is great-grandson of Cora Hope of Grover.

RUTH MAYHEW

Mayhew honored as top volunteer

Ruth Gamble Mayhew was honored as Volunteer of the Year by the American Legion Auxiliary at the recent state convention in Greensboro.

Mayhew, wife of Tom Mayhew and chaplain of Otis D. Green Unit 155 of Kings Mountain, was honored for her community service work as a volunteer with the Senior Olympics program.

The local unit also won seven awards for various phases of activities during the year, including first place for its recent crime prevention seminar; second place for its children and youth project which helped a sick child; third place in both music and leadership; and certificates as an all-star unit in Americanism and for its 75th anniversary celebration on the American Legion's birthday.

Attending the meeting were the Unit's two past state presidents, Lib Stewart, who is currently Unit president, and Arlene Barrett, who is unit secretary-treasurer.

Wherever public spirit prevails, liberty is secure.
