

MRS. JONATHAN WILSON McDONALD
(Kimberly Stahr Wilson)

Wilson-McDonald

Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Wilson McDonald, who were wed Saturday, are on a wedding trip to Cancun, Mexico and afterwards will reside in Tega Cay, SC.

Kimberly Stahr Wilson became McDonald's bride in a ceremony in St. John's Lutheran Church in Cherryville.

Rev. Michael E. Collins officiated. Iva Bane was organist, Blair Beam was vocalist, Joan Johnson was harpist and Learey Cloer was trumpeter for the program of nuptial music.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white satin gown from Impression Bridals. The fitted bodice featured a Vee neckline edged in delicate pearls and a plunging Vee back. The long, tapered sleeves were gently pouffed at the shoulders and decorated with Alencon lace, beads and sequins. The ballgown skirt flowed into a Cathedral train which was completed by an Alencon lace peplum and centered by a satin bow with Alencon motifs at the bustle. She carried a knee-length cascade of gardenias, white roses, stephanotis, accents of pearls with greenery, ruscus and magnolia leaves.

Sumer Ford was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Michelle Uren of Shelby, Becky Rankin of Belmont, Courtney Bongard of Charlotte and Tiffany Lawing of Lincolnton.

All the attendants wore purple two-piece crepe suits. The jackets were styled with satin tuxedo lapels with long sleeves and accented with two rhinestone buttons at the waistline. The suits featured a straight long skirt with a front side split. They carried long, slender cascade bouquets of a magnolia bloom as the focal point accented by pink snapdragons and rusus greenery.

Miranda Hill was flower girl. Ryan Godwin was ringbearer. The bridegroom's father was best man.

Ushers were David McDonald of Kings Mountain, Abraham Moore of Belmont, David Smith of Charlotte and Chris Drum of Belmont.

Janet C. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. James W. McDonald hosted the reception after the ceremony at Club Carolina.

The bride's mother and the bridegroom's parents also hosted the rehearsal dinner Friday night at Gastonia City Club.

The bride is the daughter of Janet C. Wilson of Tega Cay, SC and John C. Wilson Jr. of Gastonia and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Wilson Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Everette Canipe and great-granddaughter of Frank Canipe. She is a graduate of Cherryville High School and the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, where she was a member of Chi Omega Sorority.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. McDonald of Kings Mountain are parents of the bridegroom. He is a graduate of Bessemer City High School, Gaston College and Limestone College and is a professional kneeboarder/ski-boarder for O'Brien International. He is the grandson of Mrs. Margaret Griffin.

Women's Agenda Assembly October 4

Women interested in issues of concern to women are invited to attend a Women's Agenda Assembly October 4 from 5:30-9 p.m. at Family Life Center, First United Methodist Church, 190 E. Franklin Blvd. in Gastonia.

The program is free. A light supper is available at cost of $2. A nursery will be available for preschool children and a light supper will be provided at no charge for preschoolers. Advance registration is required for the nursery services at 922-3621.

The forum will rank issues and public policy concerns of interest to women in North Carolina to be addressed by state legislators.

Jess Osborn Home Improvements

Jess Osborn Home Improvement Services, Inc. has been providing quality work and service for 10 years. And with each year gaining thousands of satisfied customers.

Osborn Home Improvement is now extending their services to ceramic tile and marble installation.

They noticed an increased demand by customers for the more sophisticated and elegant look of marble and tile. There was also a need for quality installer.

"It was a natural direction for us to go," says Osborn. Classic Marble and Tile now provides first-class installation with a first-class product.

Osborn spent months traveling to several plants and manufacturers looking for a company that would offer the best product and service. He chose Micalline Products, Inc., producers of quality cultured marble for over 20 years.

David Ewing, in charge of sales and marketing, will be happy to go to your home, take measurements, access your needs, and provide a free estimate. Call 822-6710 for more information.

And just like all work done by Jess Osborn Home Improvement Services, all marble and tile installation is backed by their one-year written labor warranty.

Classic Marble and Tile will soon be opening a showroom at Home Improvements office at 3906 Old Hickory Grove Road, Mount Holly. Customers will then be able to view and touch the wide selection Classic has to offer.

People pay good money and expect a quality product. It's not only quality work but the care for the customer that sets them apart from other companies.

"Too many business owners care about getting their money. That's what makes us different, we do care about the customer. We want to be willing to put our name on each job."

"We would like to take this opportunity to thank the thousands of people we have served over the past 10 years and we look forward to not only serving those customers again but also future customers."
