Zimmerman joins KM Baptist Church

Angela Zimmerman of Shelby has joined the staff of Kings Mountain Baptist Church as Minister of Music.

A private piano teacher since 1987 and staff accompanist at Gardner-Webb University in Boiling Springs, Zimmerman has been in a leadership role in children's choirs since her first accompanist position at the age of 12. She said those early teaching roles gave her invaluable experience to build on in college, seminary and beyond.

Reared in the church as a preacher's kid, Zimmerman said she was always in church when the doors opened. She accepted Jesus as her Savior during a revival in 1967 but it was not until college that she was called to the ministry of music and changed her major to church music.

It was at Southwestern Baptist Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas that she met her husband, Steve, and they were married in 1984 and both graduated from seminary in 1985 and moved to ministry positions in Brunswick, Ga.

Zimmerman, 34, was interim organist at Rosen Heights Baptist Church in Fort Worth, Texas in 1985 and from 1982-83 directed choirs for two and three year-old children at Travis Avenue Baptist Church in Forth Worth. Her first position out of seminary was as Minister of Music at Norwich Street Baptist Church in Brunswick, Ga. from 1986-87. She was interim Minister of Music at Central Baptist Church in Lawrenceville, Ga. from 1991-92: and organist and children's choir coordinator at Central Baptist Church in Lawrenceville from 1987-93.

She comes to Kings Mountain from First Baptist Church of Shelby where her husband is Minister of Education and where she is Children's Choir Coordinator. She holds a B.A. degree in church music from Tift College, Macon, Ga. and a Master Church Music from Southwestern Baptist Seminary. She and her husband are parents of twin girls, Karen and Kimberly, born June 1, 1987. They reside at 915 Wyke Road in Shelby.
