Health Council to hold work session Tuesday

Kings Mountain District Schools Health Council will hold a special work session Tuesday from 6-8 p.m. at Kings Mountain District School's Office, 105 E. Ridge St.

Chairman Wanda Amay said the workshop will be a continuation of a discussion of the sex education curriculum.

Amay said the 18-member board would present recommendations on the curriculum to the Kings Mountain Board of Education. She said it's possible that another workshop will be held in which local citizens can give input before the recommendations are presented to the school board.

Amay said that the workshop is open to the public.
