Cowie's art on display at Cleveland Community College

The Gallery at Cleveland Community College will host the works of Anne Cowie during the month of November.

Cowie has a private studio in Belmont and does calligraphic painting, screen printing and calligraphic commissions, specializing in unusual invitations. She is a former instructor of calligraphy in the Art and Continuing Education Department at Queens College in Charlotte.

The exhibit is free, and open to the public during regular college hours, 8 a.m.-10 p.m. Monday through Thursdays and from 8 a.m.-4 p.m. on Fridays. For information call Hal Bryant at 484-4023.

The CCC Student

Government Association and the College Foundation will sponsor the critically acclaimed musical group "Trapezoid" in a free concert on November 15 at 7:30 p.m. in the college auditorium.

Trapezoid creates its own style of music. Its innovative approach has spanned more than 18 years of national and international touring and recordings. The ensemble tells stories with music, combining folk roots, world eclecticism, classical precision, and new age mysticism with the vitality of contemporary music.

For more information, call Dottie McIntyre at 484-4025.
