Work begins on lake project

Workers are moving dirt and pouring concrete at the city's old Davidson Lake.

The state-mandated improvements will begin in earnest the first week of the new year with the beginning of the earth work, said Water Supt. Walt Ollis.

"We're holding off on the major part of the earth work until school is out so there won't be school buses in the area," said Ollis.

Ollis said the lake will be filled up sometime in January, barring bad weather.

Skinner appointed to Hunt committee

Dr. Patricia Skinner, President of Gaston College, has been named by Governor Jim Hunt to the N. C. Alliance for Competitive Technologies.

She is among 18 top North Carolina business, government and education leaders charged with boosting industry competitiveness by looking for better ways to attract and use federal and state technology grant money.

Andy Logan enlists in Army National Guard

Andy M. Logan enlisted in the Army National Guard Co. B-505th Engineer Battalion in Kings Mountain December 14.

He will take basic training at Fort Sill, Oklahoma this summer and return after basic to finish his senior year of high school. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Logan of Kings Mountain.

Season's Greetings

Here's to a magical night and a glorious holiday!

Enjoy.
