KM woman reports abduction, sexual assault

A 24-year-old Kings Mountain woman told law enforcement officers she was abducted and sexually assaulted at gunpoint December 23.

The woman said a man abducted her at gunpoint at a Kings Mountain car wash at 9:15 p.m. and forced her to drive her car to a location on Holiday Inn Drive.

She said he pointed a small black pistol at her, took her keys and made her get in her car. He held the pistol to her head and sexually assaulted her, she said.

The woman told county officers the man pounded her head against the car until she passed out. When she awoke, she was alone and her keys were in the car and she drove home.

The incident was reported to Kings Mountain Police at 1:20 a.m. She was treated at Kings Mountain Hospital.

The suspect is described as a white man between 35 and 40 years old, approximately 6-1 in height and weighing from 185 to 200 pounds. He was reportedly wearing a black jacket, blue jeans and black gloves. He was described as having straight black hair and a mustache with facial scars and a tattoo of a lizard on his left wrist.

Ptl. Billy Fredell responded to the incident call and transported the woman to the Kings Mountain Hospital emergency room for treatment.
