District Attorney Bill Young says the sentence handed down by Judge Jesse Caldwell is the most serious in a drug conviction this

Roper, a former salesman with C&T Auto Sales, sold an undercover drug officer 398 grams of cocaine in 1994.

After handing Roper $14,000 in cash, officers with the State Bureau of Investigation attempted to take him into custody. But Roper fled in his car, allegedly attempted to run down Sheriff Dan Crawford, who was also an SBI agent at the time.

Officers took Roper into custody after he wrecked his car in a curve on Longbranch Road.

During the trial, jurors listened to audio tapes of telephone conversations between Roper and undercover drug agents.

Roper has three prior drug con-

WRECKS

DEC. 21, 1995 Ptl. S. M. Skinner said that a hit and run driver damaged a car owned by Joey Earl Turner, 111 N. Deal St. The vehicle was parked in the Harris-Teeter parking lot.

DEC. 23, 1995

Sgt. Bob Myers said that a 1993 Ford operated by Dana Michelle Lane, Lincolnton, bumped a 1991 Ford operated by Lou Ann Alexander Goforth. Route 2, Bessemer City, at the stop light on Deal Street. Damages were estimated at $350.

DEC. 24, 1995

Ptl. C. M. Kahn said that one person was hurt when a 1989 Dodge operated by Terry Lee Smith, 4200 Hovis Rd., Charlotte, went out of control at a high rate of speed on a curve on Northwoods Drive.

Kahn said the vehicle hit two mailboes at 1308 and 1310 Northwoods Drive and a guide wire to a utility pole causing the pole to break in two 12 feet from its top. Electricity to the East side of Northwoods Drive was interrupted. Kahn said the vehicle left the scene and was found at 1903 Alpine Drive. Property damages included $5,000 to the car and $1560 to the utility pole owned by the City of Kings Mountain and two mailboxes.

DEC. 30, 1995 Ptl. S. M. Skinner said a domestic argument resulted in a bump-up in the parking lot of Chesterfield Apartments. Izella Morrison Johnson, Apt. 34, told police that George Washington

Johnson, Apt. 34, had blocked her way with her car. Mrs. Johnson, who had got into Mr. Johnson's car, a 1986 Chrysler, bumped the front of the other vehicle with the left bumper of Johnson's car. Damages were estimated at $350. Mr. Johnson also filed an incident report that alleges that he was assaulted with a deadly weapon causing serious injury. According to the report, which was investigated by Ptl. Larry Ware, Johnson alleges that he was struck in the face and chest area with boiling water. No one was charged.
