

Artist's work on display

Paintings, mixed media and prints by Lenoir-Rhyne Arts professor Jean Cauthen will be exhibited at the Cleveland County Arts Center until February 3.

The Arts Center, located in the old post office on the corner of Washington and Warren Streets in Shelby, is open Monday through Friday from 10 a.m.-4 p.m.

Cauthen's work has been shown in Virginia, North Dakota, Georgia, Washington, DC and North Carolina. Most recently she had a one person show at the Gaston College Gallery.

Cauthen was formerly artist in residence and art professor and theatre director at Lenoir-Rhyne and curator and assistant director at Fine Arts Center in Lynchburg, Va. Currently an assistant art professor at Lenoir-Rhyne College in Hickory, she instructs a variety of courses including art appreciation, art history, painting drawing and idea and form and medium.

Winn-Dixie open 24 hours

Kings Mountain's Winn-Dixie is now open 24 hours a day except Sunday when the store closes at 11 p.m., reopening on Monday at 7 a.m.

Co-managers Joe Holland and Kenneth Adams said the extension of store hours offers greater convenience to shoppers.

Winn-Dixie's 47 stores in the two Carolinas and Tennessee started the new policy Thursday.

"Winn-Dixie realizes in today's world people do not always work the same hours or have the same shopping schedules. To better accommodate our customers, we would like to make shopping as easy and convenient as possible," said B. B.

Willie's airing TNN commercials

Willie's Furniture and J.B. CableAds will co-sponsor The Nashville Network on the Vision Cable of Shelby system.

"We're excited about TNN," said Dennis Costner of Willie's. "The wholesome family programming of the TNN Network appeals to what we want to be associated with in our market area.

"Willie's Furniture has experienced tremendous growth since 1990. One of the main reasons for the growth is due to Cable TV advertising, and this agreement with TNN will open the door for Willie's Furniture commercials to be seen throughout the day on TNN in addition to other cable networks such as ESPN, CNN, TNT, USA, and The Weather Channel.

"We're not trying to win any Emmy Awards. We just want people to remember our name when they think of furniture, and we try to do just that by having fun with our TV commercials," Costner said.

Willie's Furniture TV commercials have maintained a light humorous setting from the zany stooges-like carpenters remodeling the store to the half-witted psychiatrist informing patients who dream of wallpaper and decorating that they have "The Willie's." The commercials aren't quickly forgotten.

"Get ready for more of the same," Costner says. "Our TNN sponsorship will give us even more opportunities to be creative in 1995."

Teens can win money in Airwalk's contest

Kings Mountain teenagers have until February 28 to submit entries for $50,000 in cash and prizes in Airwalk Footwear's "Trust Your Judgment" contest. The cash awards can be used toward college tuition, to start a business, or however the winners choose.

"Young Kings Mountain-area residents who have trusted their own judgment and taken corresponding action to improve either Kings Mountain, their families or personal situations are encouraged to write a brief summary of those actions and submit it to an area Airwalk Footwear dealer," explained Corky Fulton, manager of Kings Mountain's Sagesport located at 119 West Mountain Street.

"Airwalk's 'Trust Your Judgment' campaign is looking for those young people who aren't afraid to fly in the face of convention," he said. "Anything goes. We're looking for pioneers and pacesetters from every walk of life. I expect that we'll hear from teenagers who are doing things we've never even heard of before."

For the nearest entry location contestants may call 1-800-AIR-WALK.
