Edward D. Jones to host Gingrich broadcast

Tim Bain, the Edward D. Jones & Co. investment representative in Kings Mountain, will host a satellite broadcast Wednesday, Feb. 22. The program will feature Speaker of the House Newt Gingrich (R-Ga.) speaking to a special gathering sponsored by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce in Washington, DC. He will discuss business initiatives up for debate early in the first Congressional session of 1995.

"In the past couple of years, a lot of attention has been drawn to the way legislation and government regulations affect small businesses," Bain said. "Legislation that affects business growth may also affect the growth of our economy, so these are issues that need to be examined very carefully."

"This is also a unique opportunity to hear directly from one of the most influential people in Congress, and we hope this program will lend some insight into the issues being addressed early in the new term."

The program is a re-broadcast of a live presentation by Gingrich on February 7. Jones is offering the program in cooperation with the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.

Edward D. Jones & Co. traces its roots to 1871. Today, with more than 3,300 branches in 49 states, Jones has more branches than any other brokerage firm in the nation. Its investment representatives have more than 1.8 million clients and specialize in serving the needs of individual investors and small-business owners.

For more information on the broadcast or to reserve a seat, contact Bain at 739-0997.

Personnel Services promotes Mrs. Neal

Personnel Services Unlimited has promoted Stacy Neal, CTS, to Area Manager for Cleveland County.

Neal has been employed as an Account Representative with PSU for four years. She is married to Jim Neal and they reside in Cross Creek with their two children, Justin Howard and Kelly Neal.

PSU also announced the promotion of Dale Owens, CTS, to Area Manager for Rutherford County. He has been employed with PSU as an Account Representative in Rutherford County for three years. He was employed by the Shelby Star as Account Representative prior to joining PSU. He is a past member of the Board of Directors of Civitan in Forest City. He and his wife, Wendi, reside in the Chase community of Forest City.

Both Neal and Owens hold Certified Temporary Staffing Specialist (CTS) certification, recognized as an achievement of excellence in the temporary help industry. As Area Managers, they will be responsible for coordination of sales and service to PSU's clients - both customers and temporary employees.

Andie Horeth, who joined PSU in August as Personnel Assistant in the Kings Mountain office, has been promoted to Service Coordinator. She is married to Chris Horeth, who is News Editor of the Shelby Star. They reside in Shelby with their son, Justin.
