DOROTHY LOVELESS

Mrs. Dorothy Jean "Dottie" Loveless, 58, of Kings Mountain National Military Park near Blacksburg, SC, died February 23, 1995 at Cleveland Memorial Hospital in Shelby after a long illness.

A native of Jacksonville, Fla., she was a homemaker and previously employed as a Fragrance Representative with Ivey's of Gastonia. She was the daughter of the late Eldon M. Thompson, and after graduation from Landon High School she became a Policy Loan Representative for Prudential. Following her marriage April 28, 1956, Mrs. Loveless served with her husband and family in eight National Parks across the nation and was active in the National Park Wives Association. She was an avid collector of teddy bears and gnomes and a creative and accomplished craftswoman in her own right.

Survivors are her husband, Park Superintendent Andrew M. "Mike" Loveless; daughter, Mrs. Mary C. "Cathy" Teasley of Lattimore; son, David C. "Chris" Loveless of Antioch, SC; mother, Mrs. Ruth A. Raybourn of Jacksonville, Fla; and sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth A. Mertz of Jacksonville, Fla. and Mrs. Julie E. Ripley of Elkhorn, Wis.

A prayer service was held and friends received from 7-8:30 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 26 at Harris Funeral Home. A funeral Mass of the Resurrection was held at Christ the King Catholic Church at 10 a.m. Monday, Feb. 27, followed by burial at Clingman Memorial Gardens near Blacksburg, SC. The Rev. Monsignor William G. Wellein officiated.

Keeter Ford... A Family Tradition!

When Jessica Gosnick bought a new Ford Escort from Keeter Ford, she carried on a tradition that has been in her family for three generations. Since her grandfather, Edward Ervin, began buying cars from Keeter Ford over 40 years ago, he and his family members have purchased numerous cars and trucks from Keeter. By providing excellent service and a friendly sales staff, Keeter Ford maintains the tradition of serving the families of Cleveland County.
