something about the city limits lines," she said.

Cook made the remarks as she outlined plans for the municipal election October 10 when Kings Mountain citizens will go to the polls to elect a mayor and three ward commissioners. Four-year terms of Mayor Scott Neisler and Council members Phil Hager, Ward One, Jim Guyton, Ward Two and Norma Bridges, member at large, are expiring.

Filing for the municipal election will begin at noon on July 7 and end at noon on August 4. The deadline for new registration and address changes is September 18. Deadline for new registration and address changes for the runoff election November 7 is October 16.

Filing fee for mayor is $60. Filing fee for council members is $35.

Cook said if the terms of City Council are shortened to two terms on June 13 that in 1997 all eight seats on the Council will be up for grabs.

CLEVELAND COUNTY RABIES CLINIC
To combat the spread of rabies and help avoid a $50.00 fine, the veterinarians of Cleveland County and the Cleveland County Health Department will hold a rabies clinic beginning Monday, April 3rd and running through Saturday, April 8th, 1995 for the citizens of our county. The $5.00 cost for each rabies vaccination will be the lowest charges in 10 years. In addition to the veterinarians providing the reduced vaccination rate at their offices during their regular hours, they will also hold satellite clinics throughout the county at the times and locations listed.
