

Five to receive Teaching Fellows

Five Kings Mountain High School seniors are North Carolina Teaching Fellows for 1995-96. Four of the five are winners of scholarships totaling $20,000 each and the fifth is an alternate. The winners are Carrie Rose Hardin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hardin who plans to attend Western Carolina University. John Holland Leonard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Terry Leonard who plans to attend UNC at Greensboro. Erika Heather Randall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Randall who plans to attend Appalachian State University. William Hart Wells, son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Wells who plans to attend UNC at Greensboro. The alternate is Amanda Marie Keen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Keen, who plans to attend Appalachian State University. The Teaching Fellows Program is the most ambitious teacher recruitment program in the nation and provides $5,000 per year for a maximum of four years of college to 400 high school seniors who agree to teach for four years in North Carolina public schools after graduating from college. Since the program began in 1987, every Teaching Fellows award recipient has had an SAT score at or above the state average for that year while maintaining high standards in other academic areas.
