

THE WAY WE WERE 36 YEARS AGO

From The 1959 Files
Of The

Kings Mountain Herald

WOMAN'S CLUB OFFICERS — Pictured above are new officers of the Senior Woman's club following the installation program recently at the Woman's club. Mrs. Lewis Summey of Dallas, left above, installed the new officers, including in usual order, Mrs. Dee Jackson, third vice-president; Mrs. Wilson Griffin, first vice-president; and Mrs. John Cheshire, treasurer. The other new officers are Mrs. Tolly Shuford, recording secretary; Mrs. Paul Nolan, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Paul Mauney, chaplain; and Mrs. James Logan, club editor. (Photo by Pennington Studio.)

Three Vying For School Post

Mrs. Lena W. McGill

Drace Peeler

Mrs. F. A. McDaniel, Jr.

BETHWARE BAT LEADERS — The trio of sluggers above is expected to lead Bethware high school baseball team to its second straight Cleveland County title this spring. They were the top three hitters on last season's title-winning Buccaneer team and also were stars for the Kings Mountain Legion junior team last summer. Left to right, the stick leaders and their batting averages last spring: Jerry Morris (.326), Jerry Webster (.313) and Don Horn (.333).

BETHWARE OBSERVES HOMECOMING — Kim Cashion, center, above, will reign as queen of the Bethware High School Homecoming celebration Friday. She is shown with her court for the program at the halftime of the Bethware-Lattimore basketball game that night. Other girls in the court, left to right, are: Bee

Falls, Faye Bolin, the queen, Jeanette Hamrick, and Carolyn Whetstone. Boys who will serve as escorts are shown on the back row; in the same order, Tom Goforth, Paul Dover, Glenn Harrison, and Arnold Huntsinger. Coach Fowell will serve as escort for the queen. (Herald Photo by Pennington Studio)

IN BASIC TRAINING — Pvt. Charles D. Yelton, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Yelton, and Pvt. Ernest Valentine, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Valentine, are at Fort Jackson, S. C., for eight weeks of basic combat training.

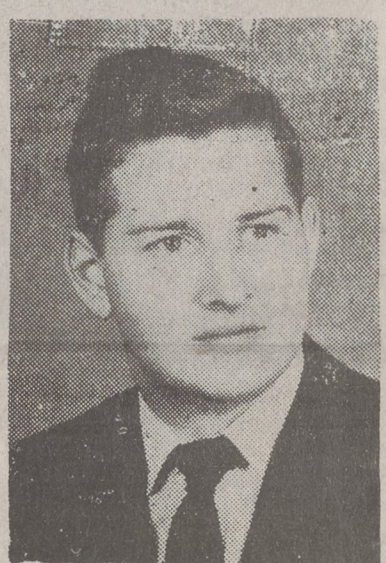

TOP DONOR — Yates Harrison is Kings Mountain's top Blood donor, holding exclusive local membership in the "Four-Gallon Club".

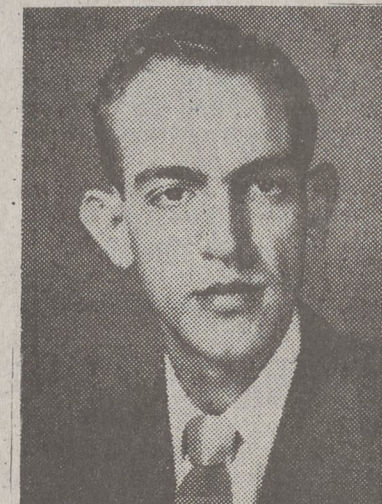

ELECTED — J. T. McGinnis, Jr., has been elected commander of Otis D. Green Post 155, the American Legion, for the coming year. Mr. McGinnis succeeds Ray Cline.

ELECTED — B. N. Barnes, veteran superintendent of city schools was elected Monday night to another two-year term. He first became superintendent in 1934.

CHAIRMAN — William Herndon heads the Kings Mountain area drive for funds for cancer. The campaign began Wednesday.

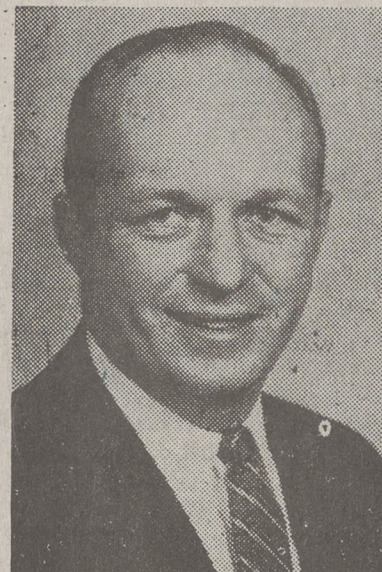

I. B. GOFORTH, Jr.

GEORGE HOUSER

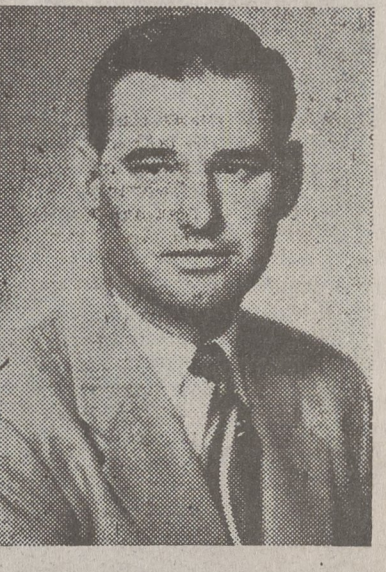

SAM STALLINGS

BEN GRIMES

CHARLES DIXON

BRUCE THORBURN

IN WOMANLESS WEDDING CAST — Pictured are six members of the over 60 member cast who will perform in the comic womanless wedding to be staged at the Woman's club Friday and Saturday evenings by the Special Projects committee of the Senior club. Lead roles in the show are played by Charles Dixon as the mother of the bride; I. Ben Goforth, Jr., as the bride's father; George Houser as the maid of honor; Sam Stallings as the minister; Ben Grimes as the rejected lover; and Bruce Thorburn as the bride's uncle.

This Page

Sponsored By:

Since 1907

- Kings Mountain
- Shelby
- Gastonia

MEMBER
FDIC