Riverfest '95 set on Broad River

BOILING SPRINGS - The final days of summer are slipping past, but there is just enough time left to celebrate Riverfest '95 on the Broad River Saturday, September 9 on Riverside Drive at the Broad River.

Take a chair, sit back, listen to the sounds of The Ruff and Rocky Bluegrass Band and watch the river go by.

Grab a tube or canoe and get into the wet of things. Or, take a hike, a nature walk, gaze at sun spots through a telescope or participate in a Poker Run for a possible win of $100.

Everyone will want to participate in the Rubber Ducky Regatta. At 2:30 p.m., approximately 2,000 adopted rubber ducklings will be dumped into the river for the excursion of their lives. The three fastest and most accurate ducks will take home $250, first; $100, second; and $50, third prize for their adoptive owners.

Ducks may be adopted for $3 each through Riverfest committee members or at Boiling Springs Town Hall, Cellular One, Chen's, Cleveland Community College, Cleveland County Chamber, Emily's, Ichabod's, or Suttle's Drug. Ducks may also be adopted the day of the race as long as orphans are available.

The Cleveland County Horsemen's Association will sponsor the 10 a.m. Poker Run. Riders on horseback and bicycles and hikers will be able to enjoy the trail and try for the luck of the draw. Stations will be set around the course so that each contestant can draw a card from a deck. The player with the best hand at the finish line wins. The entry fee is $10 per participant.

Pack up the entire family and take along canoes and tubes for a ride down the river. Canoes, tubes, life jackets and shuttle service up the river will be provided. Canoes, $5 and tubes, $2 will be available from 10 a.m.-4 p.m.

Guided nature walks along the river will begin at 11 a.m. and
