Head Start accepting Kenan Program applications

Cleveland County Head Start is accepting applications for the Kenan Program. The program is designed for parents who wish to complete their high school diploma or receive their GED through Cleveland Community College, and spend time in the afternoons in the classroom with their child. The program requirements include:

- Parents willing to attend adult education class during morning hours and the rest of the day in class with their child.

- Children ages three and four.
- Families with low to moderate income, regardless of race, sex, religion, national origin, or special needs/disabling conditions.

Transportation will be provided. For more information as to where the class will be located, or to get an application, contact Cleveland County Head Start at 734-5660.

Weekend events at Crowders Mountain Park

Upcoming events at Crowders Mountain State Park:

Saturday, September 9, a night hike/owl outing is planned at 8:30 p.m. Wear comfortable walking shoes and clothing and take insect repellent. The hike is limited to 20 people. The program will last about 1 1/2 hours.

Sunday, September 10, join a park ranger for a talk and close-up look at these often misunderstood reptiles. View both poisonous and non-poisonous snakes live which are native to the area. The talk will last about one hour. Meet at the Park Office.
