

Patriots to show new offense, 4-3 defense

Kings Mountain Middle School's football team was scheduled to open the season Wednesday afternoon at home against West Lincoln. Coach David Heffner takes his Patriots to Shelby next Wednesday for a 5 p.m. game.

Heffner and his coaching staff and players have been working hard for three weeks installing a new multiple I offense and 4-3 defense, and he said they're looking forward to playing against somebody else.

"This year we're going to be inexperienced because we have a very young team," said Heffner, who returns only three starters from last year. "Since we're putting in a new offense and a new defense we're behind right now. But I'm well pleased with the way the players have come along so far.

Heffner has a five-man coaching staff for the first time in years.

Returning from last year's staff is Maury Williams, who works with the wideouts and linebackers. Joining the coaching staff is former KMHS player Monty Deaton who is helping Heffner with the offensive and defensive backs; Jerry Ratchford, who is working with the offensive and defensive lines; and Tyler Harris, who is working with the linebackers.

One plus for the Patriots is that they have 58 players, and that should help Heffner develop some depth as he gets his players ready to become future Mountaineers. The line has good size again and the backs also show promise.

"We have a good mix of seventh and eighth graders," said Heffner. "I'd say that most of the starters will be eighth graders but because we have so many players it will take us a couple of games to see who's going to play where. Our lineup will change a lot."

Heffner's returning players from last year are Eric Carroll, Josh McDaniel, Torrey Cureton, Steven Ray, Charles Perry, Jeremy Harris, David George, Josh Camp, Laymond Caldwell, Brian Thornburg, Gerald Smith and Dusty Hord.

New players are Torez Leach, Kareem Odums, Stanley Whitesides, Joseph Williamson, Matt Ash, Dwayne Littlejohn, Marcus Odums, Jamaal Byers, Antonio McClain, Danny Wright, Justin Kies, Cemal Roberts, Cedrick Boyce, Anthony Smith, Wesley Caldwell, Chad Shelton, Karl Burch, T.J. Whitaker, Bill Welsh, Adam Blanton, Michael Marr, Josh Camp, Ismael Banks, Brad Callahan, Clint Falls, C.J. Van Dyke, Daniel Mauney, Jason Jarvis, Daniel Davis, Greg Crawford, Damien Miranda, Javarous Crenshaw, Anthony Childers, Nicholas Hullender, Allan Parker, Brad Merck, Derrick Owens, Steven Lancaster, Brock McDonald, Kenneth Moore, Jonathan Houze, Kelly Littlejohn, Chris Hogue, Derek Dixon, Trey Krieger, Michael Gutierrez and Josh Ball.

The managers are Stuart Heffner, Lane Echols and Chad Perkins.

The Patriots' cheerleaders, who are coached by Jennifer Cobb, are Tanna Morgan, Tiffany Reeves, Crystal Quick, Kellie Houser, Erin Mathis, Misty McCree, Kesha Brooks, Kia Beam, Ashley Anderson, Kisha Hillman, Candy Johnson, Angela Early and Jodie Baity.

Stoney Jackson wins KMCC championship

Stoney Jackson shot a 69-68-69-206 Saturday, Sunday and Monday to win his seventh Club Championship at Kings Mountain Country Club.

Jackson won by three shots over Eric Spicer, who fired a 71-68-70-209.

Broadwell wins

KMCC ladies golf

Mary Leigh Broadwell shot a 94-82-176 to win the Ladies Club Championship Saturday and Sunday at Kings Mountain Country Club.

Broadwell won by three shots over Kimberly Spicer, who fired a 89-90-179.

Peggy Jackson won the first flight with a 101-94-195. Doris Cloninger was second at 103-106-209.

Janet Tate won the second flight with a 113-94-207. Doris Howze was second with a 106-105-211.

Closest to the pin winners were Doris Howze on #5 and Peggy Jackson on #17. Jackson had the longest putt on #10 and Kimberly Spicer had the longest drive on #2.

Million $ Shootout

set at Challenger 3

The Junior Charity League of Shelby will sponsor a Million Dollar Hole-in-One Shootout September 13-17 at Challenger 3 Golf Course to benefit the Clothing Room.

The Shootout has rapidly become recognized as one of the most successful fundraisers for charity across the country.

The Shootout works much like a closest to the pin contest. Some eight tees will be set up at Challenger 3 and golfers will pay $1 per ball to shoot at a special green from approximately 150 yards. Ten lucky golfers will qualify for Sunday's finals. Any golfer shooting a hole-in-one in the final will win $1 million.

There will also be a youth division offered for ages 8-12 and 13-17. One non cash prize will be awarded in each youth group for the person closest to the hole in the final shootout.

Qualifying will be held September 13-14 from 3-8:30 p.m., September 15 from 1-8:30 p.m., September 16 from 9 a.m.-8:30 p.m., and September 17 from 1-5 p.m. The semi-finals and finals will begin September 17 at 5 p.m.

Mitch Howze won the championship B flight with a 67-80-75-222. John Gamble was one stroke back with a 72-75-76-223.

Scott Summitt birdied the first hole of sudden death to win the first flight over Gary Howze. Both golfers shot 231. Summitt had rounds of 77, 80 and 74 while Howze shot 80-78-73.

Leard Keeter also birdied the first hole of sudden death to win the second flight over Curt Collins. Keeter had a 79-82-82-243 and Collins shot a 77-86-80-243.

Bo Ballard and Ragan Harper tied for top honors in the third flight. Ballard shot 88-84-79-251 and Harper had 90-82-79-251.

Bill Sellers won the fourth flight with a 89-92-77-258. Randy Hartsoe and John Caveny tied for second with 268 scores.

Pete Lovell won the fifth flight with a 93-97-97-287, and Jim Champion was second with a 97-98-95-290.
