back last year, has moved to tailback and has been very impressive. Brick Hill has taken over the quarterback duties and is making good progress.

"Their running game has the possibility of making some very big plays offensively," said Massey.

Massey said the key to Kings Mountain's success will be holding onto the football. The Mountaineers have committed nine turnovers in their first two games, and they've fumbled on many other occasions but recovered the ball themselves.

"We can't turn the ball over and be a good football team," says Massey. "We talk about it all the time in practice and we're trying to emphasize it. We're also going to have to do a better job with our special teams this week. If we continue to play as hard as we're playing defensively, I feel like we'll be in good shape."

"But the burden is going to lie with the offense," he added. "We've got to hold onto the football and put it in the endzone."

Massey said the Mountaineers need a big win going into their open date next week, and he urges the KM fans to come out in huge numbers to support the team.

"We had a good turnout last week at Crest," he said. "We appreciate the support of the fans and hope they'll continue to hang with us."

Massey said. "We just made too many mistakes. Our special teams play hurt us. Not putting points on the board in the first quarter and the first of the second quarter when we had those two drives down to the 35 and 30 yard line, and then two turnovers, hurt us. You can't do things like that against an outstanding football team."

"But I think Crest is a very good football team and deserves all the recognition they've gotten. Hopefully, we'll take this game and use it as a stepping stone and learning process."

"We played hard," he went on. "I don't want to take anything away from our kids. Even in the fourth quarter we were flying around defensively. I was a little disappointed in our execution in the second half, but when you get down like that sometimes you don't execute as well as you should."

Senior fullback Shane Logan led the Mountaineers in rushing with 75 yards in 13 carries, giving him 197 yards rushing in the first two games. Marcus Smith added 44 yards in seven carries and also caught two passes for 28 yards.
