

GIFT TO FIREMEN - Christmas came early for the Kings Mountain Fire Department. Santa delivered a 46-inch big screen Magnavox TV set for firemen to enjoy in the kitchen-lounge area. The set, valued at $2,000, replaces a television purchased by firemen 15 years ago. From left, Fire Chief Frank Burns and firemen John Wright and David Ayscue accept the gift from Badcock Home Furnishings Center Manager Brooke Gentile and his wife, Kathy.

Bloodmobile returns for three visits

The Red Cross bloodmobile will return to Cleveland County for three visits in January.

On January 5, 1996 the bloodmobile will be at the Cleveland Mall from 1:30-6:30 p.m. The visit is sponsored by AMVETS of Shelby.

The regional blood collecting unit will be at Cleveland Community College on January 10, 1996 from 9 a.m.-1:30 p.m.

On January 16, 1996 the blood bank will be at Elizabeth Baptist Church in Shelby from 2:30-7 p.m.
