hung tough and took the lead on several occasions. The Mountaineers tied the score with

1:11 to play on a 3-point field goal by Sizemore, but the Bulldogs regained the advantage at the foul line. A potential game-tying 3-break lay-up in recent KMHS basketball games.

Despite the loss of 23-point Bulldogs put 16 missed shots back scorer Eric Tate, Kings Mountain's Mountaineers are inching closer and closer to their first Southwestern 3-A Conference victory.

Thursday night at home. Larry Sipe's charges built a 12-point lead against SWC leader R-S Central before falling by four points; and Friday night they switched leads with Burns on several occasions before falling by three points, 63-60, for their fifth straight conference loss.

In girls action, it was much the same story as Kings Mountain played tough against the SWC leaders but fell 49-43 for their fourth straight defeat.

The Burns boys grabbed an early lead by controlling the backboards - and the dominance inside turned out to be the key to victory. The
