Big band concert set Sunday at Cleveland

Cleveland Community College will host the annual Father's Day Big Band Concert June 16 at 2:30 p.m. in the college's Student Activities Center.

Frank Love and the CCC Orchestra will perform what has been an annual treat for fans of big band music. Selected pieces will include favorites from the Glenn Miller Orchestra, Tommy Dorsey Orchestra, Artie Shaw Orchestra, Court Basie Orchestra and Benny Goodman Orchestra.

According to Love, the concert will include ballads, romantic music as well as swing, melodies and excellent vocalists.

This year's concert will be held in memory of Dan Jarvis, who died in the recent airline tragedy in Florida. Jarvis was the orchestra's pianist.

Admission is $5 and children age 12 and under will be admitted free. Proceeds will support the CCC Foundation.

For more information, call Dr. Dottie McIntyre at 484-4025.

Baldonado, Mayse earn scholarships

Lee Baldonado, 1996 graduate of Kings Mountain Senior High, and Marie Mayse, student at Lenoir-Rhyne College, have been selected by St. Matthews Lutheran Church as the 1996 recipients for the St. Matthews Benevolent Foundation Scholarships to Lenoir-Rhyne College. The funds for the amount of each scholarship award will be forwarded to Lenoir-Rhyne College to assist Lee in his entering freshman year and Marie in her finishing senior year. The scholarship funds are administered by St. Matthews Benevolent Foundation Endowment Fund whereby the principal remains intact and the income is used for benevolences and outreach programs as the Church Council directs.

In addition to the St. Matthews Scholarship, Lee Baldonado has also been awarded the Martin Luther Scholarship by Lenoir-Rhyne. Marie Mayse has also received the St. Matthews Scholarship for her freshman, sophomore and junior years at Lenoir-Rhyne.

Lee is the son of Ms. Karen Baldonado, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Howell, and the great-grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cline. Marie is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Scott Mayse.

SCHOLARSHIP WINNER - Autumn Edsall, graduating senior at Kings Mountain High School, is recipient of the Cleveland County School Food Service Association scholarship for $300. She is the daughter of Becky and Steve Edsall and plans to attend Lenoir-Rhyne College and become an occupational therapist. Autumn, president of the KMHS Chapter of Students Against Violence Everywhere, accepted a $100 donation from the organization for the chapter.
