

Wedding

Williams-Keadey vows exchanged

Marianne Jeannette Williams and Stephen Curtis Keadey were married June 1 at Providence United Methodist Church in Charlotte.

Dr. Jim Gilland and Rev. George Freeman officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Williams Jr. of Charlotte, formerly of Bessemer City, and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Williams Sr. of Richmond, Va., also formerly of Bessemer City, and the late Marion Horne Lingerfeldt and the late Bain Lingerfeldt of Bessemer City. She is also the great-granddaughter of Mrs. George Horne (Mama Horne) and the late Mr. Horne of Bessemer City.

The bride was escorted to the altar and presented in marriage by her father. She wore a formal white silk princess style gown with a Chapel train and princess neckline. The short sleeved bodice was covered with pearl appliques. The floor-length veil of diamond illusion was gathered into a headpiece of silk roses and trimmed with scattered pearls. The bride carried a flowing, cascading bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Maid of honor was Alissa Williams of Charlotte, sister of the bride.

Bridesmaids were Kanku Bhagat of Raleigh, Amy Powers of Morrisville, Mrs. Ashleigh Sumlin of Carrboro and Kristie Weisner of Chapel Hill.

All the attendants wore cobalt blue tea-length, short-sleeved, fitted Chemise gowns enhanced by an opening to the left knee. Each carried a nosegay bouquet of Stargazer lilies, white mountain lilies and ivy.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry R. Keadey of North Olmstead, Ohio and the grandson of Mrs. Robert Keadey and the late Mr. Keadey of Westlake, Ohio. The bridegroom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner at the Historic Morehead Inn in Charlotte.

Best man was Scott Malchus of North Hollywood, California. Other groomsmen were Dan DePauw of Raleigh, Brad Keadey, brother of the bridegroom, Steve Schmidt and Adam Tuchinsky, all of Chapel Hill.

Mrs. Everett Talbot and Mrs. Ron Stalcup, aunt of the bride, both from Charlotte, were register and program attendants.

Immediately following the 6 p.m. ceremony the bride's parents hosted a seated dinner reception at Myers Park Country Club where the bridal couple thanked family and friends for sharing the special occasion with them. The wedding cake was made by Gayle Bennett using Mama Horne's lemon buttermilk pound cake recipe and featured four large white circular tiers with cascading pale pink gum paste roses and white Calla lilies. Mama Horne also participated in a traditional "chicken" dance. The bridal couple was showered with a rose petal and herbs potpourri from silk flowers upon leaving the reception.

The bride is a graduate of East Mecklenburg High School and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She is an Account Manager with Cisco Systems in Research Triangle Park.

The bridegroom is a graduate of North Olmsted High School and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He received a Master's degree in History from North Carolina State University and is pursuing a Ph. D. in History from UNC at Chapel Hill.

Following a wedding trip to Aruba, the newlyweds are making their home in Chapel Hill.
