Park benches will go up in downtown area

Park benches will soon go up in strategic areas of Kings Mountain as a project of the Kings Mountain Business and Professional Association.

The benches may be placed in memory or honor of individuals at a cost of $100 per bench and orders should be placed with Linda Allen, 734-0044, or Tim Hord, 739-6266, by September 6. If ordering by mail, the address is Ashley's, PO Box 1576, Kings Mountain, NC 28086. The check should be drawn to the Kings Mountain Business and Professional Association.

Allen said the goal of the beautification committee of the new organization is to improve the uptown area. The project was approved recently by City Council.

The benches will include an engraved brass plate with the name of the donor and the name of the person or persons honored.

"The benches will be very attractive and will keep people places to relax while shopping in the area and add to the downtown flavor," said Hord.

Order forms may be picked up or dropped off at Ashley's or at the Kings Mountain Antique Mall.
