

Nonfiction at Mauney Library

New nonfiction at Mauney Memorial Library:

Cevardi, Giovanni. "Drawing Human Anatomy" (Studio Vista, 1995).

This exceptional manual of figure drawing provides a thorough survey of human anatomy through the artist's eyes, illustrating muscles in typical patterns alongside detailed anatomical diagrams that show their position in relation to the skeleton.

Harrison, Hazel. "How to Paint and Draw; A Complete Course in Practical and Creative Technique" (Smithmark, 1994).

This is the most up to date and complete guide to all the materials, techniques, and methods that any beginner will need, and contains expert ideas and advice on many new innovations and approaches to provide inspiration for the more advanced practitioners.

Horton, James. "How to Paint Skin Tones." (North Light Books, 1995).

This book examines the subtle skill of recreating realistic flesh tones. With a detailed introduction and problem solving approach, it helps you understand color mixing and put it into practice.

Woods, Gerald. "Practical Drawing with Pastels" (Courage, 1996).

Combining detailed descriptions of materials and techniques with hands on projects and professional advice, this book is an innovative approach in a challenging medium.

Woods, Gerald. "Practical Oil Painting" (Courage, 1996).

This book provides you with the detailed descriptions of materials, instruction on techniques, and step by step exercises to build confidence and experience in a wide range of methods.

Woods, Michael. "The Complete Drawing Course." (B.T. Bateford Ltd., 1995).

Drawing is a skill that can be learned by anyone with the desire to succeed. In 25 easy lessons, this book shows that with a knowledge of all the materials available, the beginner can create a whole range of sketches and drawings using simple techniques.

EDUCATION

Baumer, Bernice. "How to Teach Your Dyslexic Child to Read" (Birch Lane Press, 1966).

Every dyslexic child can learn to read, write, and spell, thanks to this one one easy to use instructional book.

Costello, Elaine. "Signing: How to Speak With Your Hands." (Batam Books, 1995)

American sign language is a wonderful silent language of hands, face and body that is rich with nuance, emotion, and grace. This comprehensive and easy to use guide contains all the basic vocabulary and linguistic information that females, friends and professionals need to communicate effectively with deaf children and adults.

Wade, Theodore. "Home School Manual" (Gazelle Publishers, 1995).

ROSE TURNER
KM Librarian

This is an encyclopedia of ideas, information and inspiration at your fingertips.

CHILD CARE

Darling, Kindersley. "Child Magazine's Book of Children's Parties" (Darling Kindersley, 1996).

This essential guide takes all the stress out of organizing a party for children five and under.

Mackonochie, Alison. "Complete Book of Pregnancy and Baby Care" (Smithmark, 1996).

This book provides all the essential up to date information you and your partner need during your pregnancy and the first year of your baby's life.

INTERIOR DECORATION

Clark, Sally. "House Beautiful Details" (Hearst Books, 1996).

Details are at the heart of every decorating scheme. This book takes the mystery out of selecting and displaying those accents by exploring the five simple guidelines of shape, scale, texture, color, and finish.

"House Beautiful Bedrooms" (Hearst Books, 1996).

It is the most intimate room in the house and the most private, a place for relaxation, reflection and romance. How we choose to decorate our bedroom says much about our dreams and ourselves.

Kaufman, Margo. "This Damn House; My Subcontract With America" (Villard, 1996).

Kaufman portrays the mind numbing, gut turning, wallet emptying free fall of home renovations.

Nikitas, Matthew. "Grand Finishes for Walls and Floors" (The Globe Pequot Press, 1994).

If you think words like fun and refinishing don't belong in the same sentence, this instructive, easy to use and charming new home how-to guide is certain to change your mind.

Wissinger, Joanna. "The Interior Design Handbook" (Henry Holt and Company, 1995).

Whether you are moving into a new house or renovating and re-decorating an existing one, this book is the perfect first step to creating an intimate and unique space that is a joy to live in and simple to maintain.

GROOMING

Norton, Sally. "Makeup and Skin Care" (Smithmark, 1996).

Everyone wants to look their best all the time, and the essence of looking good is the skin and what you put on it. This is the ultimate guide to step by step skin care, beauty and fabulous make up looks for every occasion.

Spellane, Mary and Christine Sherlock. "Color Me Beautiful's Looking Your Best; Color Make Up and Style" (Madison Books, 1995).

This book is packed with the most up to date information and advice on color and image.
