

Kings Mountain Police Report

Watson jailed on rape charges

Roger Dale Watson, 48, of 307 Silver St., was jailed under $150,000 secured bond on December 27 and charged with first degree statutory rape.

Det. Bobby Steen of the Cleveland County Sheriff's Department said more charges are pending.

Steen said Watson is accused of raping a 14-year-old girl.

Steen, the investigating and arresting officer, said the arrest of Watson follows a six-year investigation.

Sgt. Maurice Jamerson and Ptl. Larry Ware assisted in serving the warrant.

$500 reward offered in Bullock vandalism

John Bullock, owner of Bullock Industries Inc., 405 Margrace Road, is offering a $500 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person(s) responsible for vandalism to his 1974 Ford truck over the New Year's holidays.

According to Bullock, sometime between December 30 and January 2 someone threw brick through all of the truck's windows, slashed all four tires, smashed a mirror and bent in the panel on the passenger side door.

He said they also attempted to break into a tool box on the truck bed and damaged it.

Total damage to the truck, which was parked in front of the building, was over $1,000, according to Bullock.

Bullock said anyone with information should call Lt. Houston Corn at the Kings Mountain Police Department (734-0444).

CODAP won't coordinate 1997 Project Graduation

The Community Organization for Drug Abuse Prevention (CODAP) has announced that it will not coordinate this year's Project Graduation event.

According to James H. Hines Jr. of CODAP, information provided to the CODAP Board of Directors by the voluntary community-wide steering committee indicated attendance figures continue to decline, volunteer support and funding has declined, CODAP has downsized by three staff members, and the three Cleveland County school systems have indicated they will have different graduation dates.
