

Wedding

MRS. JASON MICHAEL HABEL
(Adella Marie Robertson)

Robertson-Habel

The Morehead Inn in Charlotte was the setting for the March 8 wedding uniting Adella Marie Robertson and Jason Michael Habel.

Rev. John Futterer, pastor of First Lutheran Church in Albemarle, officiated the ceremony. Curjous George Music Company arranged the nuptial music.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. The bride's gown of white satin was appliqued with pale pink roses. The full dress was designed with off-shoulder neckline. A Camelot cap held her fingertip veil of bridal illusion. She carried a bouquet of pale pink roses.

Aimme Robertson Coleman of Kings Mountain was her sister's matron of honor. Wendy Deninger and Nancy Rednour, both of Kings Mountain, were bridesmaids.

All the attendants wore long maroon sheath gowns designed with cape sleeves. They carried bouquets of pink and white tulips.

Jennifer Lineberger was flower girl and Tanner Deninger was ringbearer. Both are of Kings Mountain.

Bill Habel, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

Eric Habel, brother of the bridegroom, and Chad Barnes ushered. Both are of Gastonia.

The bride's parents hosted the reception after the ceremony at Morehead Inn.

The bridegroom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner March 7 at Frankes Italian Grill in Charlotte.

After a wedding trip to Charleston, SC, the newlyweds live in Charlotte until May when they will move to Raleigh.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Chappell of Kings Mountain and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Robertson of California. She is a 1991 graduate of Kings Mountain High School and will graduate in May from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte with a bachelor's degree in nursing.

The bridegroom is the son of Linda and James Habel of Gastonia. He is a 1991 graduate of Ashbrook High School and a 1995 graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill with a B.S. degree in Biology. He will attend North Carolina State Veterinary School in the fall.
