Tour of Homes is April 26

"Welcome To Spring," the tour of historic homes by Carolina State Bank and the Kings Mountain Tour of Homes Committee, will be held April 26 from 10 a.m.-5 p.m.

Jay Rhodes, executive officer of Kings Mountain's Carolina State Bank, presented a check to Tour of Homes Chairman Margaret Pearson Friday as the official sponsor.

Tickets are on sale at $10 from Harris-Teeter, Dellinger's, The Dogwood Shoppe, Emily's Gift Shop of Shelby, Ford's Nursery of Gastonia and The Sub Factory.

Pearson has Patron Party tickets available by calling 739-5831. The party on April 25 will be held at the beautifully restored home of Roy and Melva Huffstetter on North Piedmont Avenue. A ticket admits two people to the Patron Party and also includes two tour tickets and a candlelight preview of the homes before the tour.

The Saturday tour ticket also includes lunch compliments of Sub Factory to be served at the Kings Mountain Woman's Club.

Proceeds from the event will benefit the American Diabetes Association. The 1995 tour of homes raised $6100 for the Diabetes Association and promoters pronounced it highly successful.

Homes on the tour include those of Tim and Juli Moore and Edie Schronce, all on West Mountain Street, Greg and Cheri Johnson at 201 E. Parker Street, Mike Smith at 210 N. Gaston Street, and Chris and Dawn Burke at 116 N. Piedmont

HISTORIC HOME TOUR - Jay Rhodes, executive of Carolina State Bank, presents a check to Margaret Pearson, chairman of the Kings Mountain Tour of Homes Committee, as the official sponsor of the 1997 tour April 26.

Avenue. The Patrick House, 114 E. King Street, is the restored First Presbyterian Church manse. The beautiful St. Matthew's Church is one of the city's oldest.

Mrs. Pearson acknowledged the gift from the bank, the free printing of tickets by the Printing Press, the complimentary luncheon by Sub Factory, Allen's Flower Shop for decorating for the Patron Party and Southern Accents of Shelby for flowers for the Patrick House. She said local garden clubs will be invited to furnish floral arrangements for the homes on the tour.

"The tour is completely different this year and we are featuring older homes in the city which have been renovated by their owners," said Pearson.
