"It Could Be You..."

"My employer must reduce his labor force. Will I be one of those who must leave? How would I meet my obligations?"

"I have discovered I have a serious illness. Suppose I am unable to function? Could I survive on disability benefits?"

"I have made a serious error. My boss wants to see me in his office! I'm really nervous. Will I be terminated?"

Have you survived feelings that your life could be blown apart? If so, you probably go to work each day with a thankful heart. If you have fortunately escaped those anxious times, you may reflect briefly upon these very real possibilities and be especially grateful for your place in our work force.

This Labor Day, may we thank God each day for our health, our talents, and our workplace. Also, may we pray for those, who are dependent, not because of choice but because of circumstances. "...whatever is gracious, think about these things" (Philippians 4:8). Think about it. It could be you.
