MRS. JASON STEPHEN HUGHES
(Valdere Dawn Smart)

Smart-Hughes

Christian Freedom Baptist Church was the setting May 17 for the wedding of Valdere Dawn Smart and Jason Stephen Hughes.

The Rev. Mike Chambers officiated the ceremony.

The nuptial music was presented by Sandy Messer of Lowell, organist, and Chambers and Laura Williams of Tennessee, vocalists.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a formal wedding gown designed by Jessica McClintock of Candlelight bridal satin. She carried a bouquet of white roses and magnolias.

Rhonda Hoyle of Shelby was her sister's matron of honor and bridesmaids were Amanda Whetstine, Tonyia Camp and Tiffany Earls, all of Kings Mountain, and Misty Bickley of Grover.

All the attendants wore knee-length suits and carried long stemmed magnolias.

Lauran Scott was flower girl and Daniel Kale was ringbearer.

George Smith of Kings Mountain was best man. Ushers were Gene Whetstine and Craig Smith, both of Kings Mountain, Danny Hughes of Shelby and Jason Sutton of Gastonia.

Cameron Whetstine and Josh Bryant distributed programs and Brad and Holly Melton presided at the register.

MRS. ANDREW S. FULTON
(Misty Whetstine)

Whetstine-Fulton

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew S. Fulton, who were wed May 10, have returned from a wedding trip to the mountains of Tennessee and are residing in Kings Mountain.

Misty L. Whetstine became Fulton's bride in a ceremony in First Assembly of God in Gastonia. Rev. David Scruggs officiated.

Jennifer Cabaniss was pianist, Gene Ellis was trumpeter, Guy Rudisill was saxophonist and Shane Hammett and Danielle McBrayer were soloists for the program of nuptial music.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

She wore an elegant gown of white satin designed with a deep V front and back neckline with pearl edging and dropped, Basque waistline. The long sleeves and bodice were appliqued with Italian lace embroidered with sequins and pearls. The back waist of the gown was highlighted by a bow and the back of the train, which extended from the long skirt, featured a double row of scalloped inserts of satin trimmed in pearls with satin roses set at intervals along the back between the satin inserts. The entire hemline and the edge of the semi-cathedral train were edged in Italian lace.

The bride carried an all-white cascade bouquet of Stargazer and Calla lilies, gardenia roses and stephanotis enhanced by ivy and sheer white ribbon with pearls.

MRS. LEVANDER REID EVANS

Putnam-Evans

Mr. and Mrs. Levander Reid Evans, who were wed Saturday, are on a wedding trip to Ireland and after June 23 will reside in Belmont.

Laura Elizabeth Putnam became Evans' bride in a ceremony in Central United Methodist Church.

Rev. Hal Schwantes officiated the ceremony for which Pamela Smithey was organist, Teresa Williams, vocalist, and Mickey Chaffin, drummer. Ed Krintz played bagpipes.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a formal gown of white bridal satin designed along Empire lines and enhanced by seed pearls and beadwork. The skirt had an attached train of beaded lace bordered by bridal satin. The bride wore her mother's veil of shoulder-length illusion draped from a headpiece of silk flowers and pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Hope Oliphant of Salisbury was matron of honor and the bride's sister, Susan Putnam of Kings Mountain, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Stephanie Edwards of Kings Mountain, Desha Evans of Salisbury, sister of the bridegroom. Taren Evans of Salisbury and Krystal Graham of Gastonia.

All the attendants wore floor-length gowns of burgundy crepe which featured empire waists and gently flared skirts. They carried Calla lilies tied with satin ribbon.
