Olivers honored on June 21 on their Golden Wedding Day

Charles Junior Oliver and Louise Blackwell Oliver celebrated their golden wedding anniversary June 21.

They were married June 20, 1947 in Gaffney, SC. The couple renewed their vows at Pecan Grove F. W. B. Church. Rev. Timothy Hargrave officiated the 3 p.m. ceremony. A reception was held after the ceremony.

The couple has seven children: Ronald Oliver of Grover; Gloria Roper, Donna Wilson and Ricky Oliver, all of Kings Mountain; Kathy Frye of Gastonia; Rodger Oliver of Supply and Michelle Hargrave of Bessemer City. They also have 13 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Mr. Oliver is retired from Vulcan Materials in Blacksburg, SC where he was a crane operator. Mrs. Oliver is retired from Black Welders in Cherryville where she was a textile employee. They are both members of Family Praise and Worship in Shelby.

Kings honored Saturday evening on 30th wedding anniversary

Tommy and Patricia Lewis King celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary Saturday night at a surprise supper and party hosted by their son and daughter-in-law, T. J. and Christy King.

The Kings were honored at supper earlier in the evening at The Wood Shed in Stanley and later surprised when they all returned to the T. J. King home by 30 relatives and family friends with cake and ice cream.

Daughter of Mrs. Jessie Lewis and the late Henry Lewis, Mrs. King is employed by Cleveland County Mental Health Department.

King, son of the late Ellis and Maude King of Kings Mountain, is a Cleveland County magistrate. He is also a Boy Scout Commissioner in the Piedmont Boy Scout Council.
