

GIFT TO LIBRARY - Kings Mountain Kiwanis Club President Phil Bouchard presents a check for $2,000 to Mauney Memorial Librarian Rose Turner. The funds will be used to pay for an analysis report to determine the feasibility of expanding the library building to add a new children's wing. The report is expected to be completed by September.

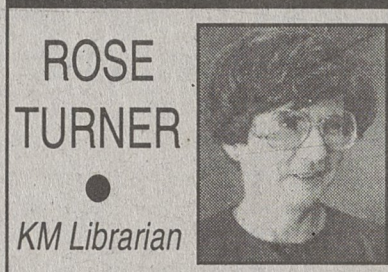

Mauney Library offers Web TV

Web TV has come to Mauney Memorial Library, and it's free to the public.

Just point and click, and you can go anywhere - with hundreds of documents, pictures, and information resources at your fingertips.

One of our patrons very generously donated a television and a Web TV to the library so the public can have access to the World Wide Web. In the near future, we will be getting a printer so information can be printed from the Web.

Web TV is the newest innovation to bring television and computers together, and to make the World Wide Web more accessible to the general public. It is quick and easy. It is much simpler to surf the Internet on Web TV than on the computer. A booklet with clear and concise instructions takes you through the necessary steps to locate and access information. A directory is included with e-mail addresses.

The World Wide Web is truly a collection of documents and information resources from all over the world. You can travel from Germany to Japan at the click of a button. There are medical resources for people seeking information about a particular problem. You can go back in time to the Civil War, World War I and II, and view the actual battle maps, see what the men thought and felt during that period of their lives, and share to some extent in the experience. There are an abundance of educational sites for children of all ages as well as adults. These sites cover the sciences, social studies, math, literature, etc.

A few simple rules will govern the use of the Web TV.

- Children under 12 years of age must be accompanied by an adult.
- Persons must sign in at the circulation desk and check out the keyboard, remote control, and the information books.
- Patrons will be limited to two-hour sessions.
- When the patron is finished using the Web TV, he must return the keyboard, remote control, and information books to the circulation desk and check out.

Mathews enlists in U.S. Air Force

Paula M. Mathews of Kings Mountain recently enlisted into the United States Air Force's Delayed Enlistment Program, according to SSGT Kenneth R. Laney, local Air Force Recruiter.

Mathews, a 1992 graduate of North Gaston High School, is scheduled for enlistment into the regular Air Force in December 1997. After graduation from the Air Force's six-week basic training course at Lackland Air Force Base near San Antonio, Texas, she will receive technical training in her designated career area.

Mathews will earn credits toward an Associate Degree in Applied Sciences through the Community College of the Air Force while attending basic and technical training schools.

CROTTS

From 1-B

All the attendants wore gowns of pewter matte crepe designed along empire lines with deep rounded necklines. The short sleeves, neckline and waistline were piped in pewter silk crepe. Long flowing sashes of satin crepe extended down the back of the gowns from satin rosettes at the waistline. Each attendant carried a hand-tied bouquet of roses, bouvardia, limonium and statice in mixed shades of lavender and purple.

The bridegroom's father was best man. Groomsmen were Gregory Charles Kale, Kenneth Chad Lail and James Welles McNeary, all of Shelby, Kenneth Glenn Hallman of Cherryville and James Walter Underwood of Kings Mountain.

April Joy Smith of Lincolnton and Richard Sean Walton of Gastonia presided at the guest book.

Mrs. Gilda Elaine Martin directed the wedding.

The bride's parents entertained after the ceremony at a reception at North Lake Country Club in Shelby. Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Lail and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie M. Bumgardner greeted guests. Sandra Alison Starnes cut and served the decorated wedding cake. Music was provided by Bill Clemmons & Rhythm in Motion of Matthews.

The bridegroom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner Friday evening in the fellowship hall of Bethel Baptist Church.

After a wedding trip to Cancun, Mexico, the newlyweds will reside in Gastonia.

Paul Rubin and Glenda Stalvey Crotts of Shelby are parents of the bride. A 1989 graduate of Shelby High School, she earned her B. S. degree in Textile Marketing and Management with a minor in Economics from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. She is employed as an Area Sales Manager with Matthews-Belk at Eastridge Mall in Gastonia.

The bridegroom is the son of Melvin Charles and Janice Lee Kale of Shelby. A 1989 graduate of Shelby High School, he earned a B. S. degree in Industrial Distribution from Western Carolina University. He is employed as a N.C. area representative for Applied Fluid Power of Richmond, Virginia.

Navy Ensign Keller receives commission

Navy Ensign Darrell L. Keller, son of Pamela D. and Darrell L. Keller Sr. of Country Club Road, Kings Mountain, recently received his commission as a naval officer after completing Officer Candidate School in Pensacola, FL.

During the 13-week training program, Keller received extensive instruction on a variety of specialized subjects including navigation, ship handling, engineering, naval warfare and management. Keller also completed a demanding daily physical fitness program that involved running, swimming and calisthenics.

In addition, Keller and fellow OCS graduates received leadership training and instruction on the importance of the Navy's core values - honor, courage and commitment - and how their meaning impacts the personal and professional conduct of more than 400,000 men and women serving in the Navy around the world.

The 1992 graduate of Bessemer City High School joined the Navy in May 1993. He is a 1996 graduate of the University of North Carolina at Asheville, with a BA degree.

College to host 'Smoke on Mountain'

Cleveland Community College will host the Greater Shelby Community Theatre production of "Smoke on the Mountain," July 18, 19 and 20 at 8 p.m. and on July 19 at 2 p.m. in the CCC Auditorium. Admission is $8 for general admission and $6 for students and senior citizens. Children under the age of five will be admitted free.

First presented in March of this year, the production is directed by Linda Pangburn-Bogan. It features the same all-star cast of Stan Logan (Pastor Mervin Oglethorpe), Martin Reynolds (Burl Sanders), Helen Turpish (Vera Sanders), Jerry Bumbaugh (Stanley Sanders), Jason Reynolds (Dennis Sanders), Gina McWhirter (Denise Sanders), Kathy Diver (June Sanders), Patricia Pearson (Miss Maude), Marsha Daughenback (Miss Myrtle), Ann Marie Bridges (Cousin Doreen), and Denise Poole (Cousin Darlene). Also returning are musicians Dean Jenks, Pete Sutton, and Eddie Biggerstaff joined by newcomer Pamela Smithey.

Conceived by Alan Bailey and written by Connie Ray, the bluegrass gospel comedy takes place on a June Saturday night in 1938 at Mount Pleasant Baptist Church in Mount Pleasant, NC. The story hilariously relates the saga of the Sanders family, a gospel singing family making a comeback on the singing circuit. The 28 featured songs include old-time favorites such as "Rock of Ages," "The Church in the Wildwood," "A Wonderful Time Up There,"

"Bringing in the Sheaves," "I'll Fly Away," and "When the Roll is Called up Yonder."

The production is co-sponsored by the Cleveland Community College Student Government Association. For more information, contact producer Dr. Dottie McIntyre at 484-4025.

Seeking A New Kind Of Senior Lifestyle

Now there is a welcome alternative for seniors who'd like an easier way of coping with the day-to-day, and do not require skilled medical care: It is assisted living. It combines housing with personalized support services in a home-like atmosphere where the social needs of residents are fulfilled, and their desire for privacy is respected.

Country Time Inn in Kings Mountain is such a facility. The residents are successful people from many walks of life, and they have one thing in common... they are comfortable with each other because they are planners, doers, and leaders. Do they sound like the kind of people you would be comfortable with?

If you are considering a change of lifestyle for yourself, please visit, meet our staff, and enjoy a meal in our fine dining room. Our marketing personnel will be happy to show you around, our residence. For more info. contact Ron White at 704-739-2760.
