KALA BUCHANAN

Kala Buchanan to reign as Bethware Fair Queen

Fifth grader Kala Buchanan will reign as Queen of the 1998 Bethware Community Fair July 28-August 1.

The agricultural fair will be the 51st annual event sponsored by Bethware Progressive Club and will be held on the grounds of Bethware School.

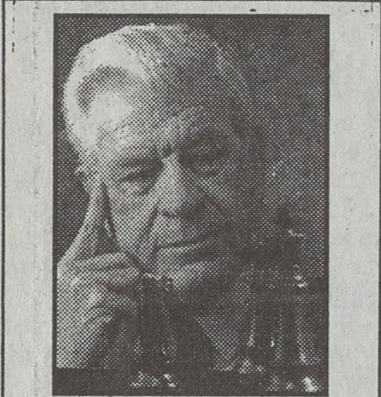

Buchanan is the daughter of Donna Keeter and Tommy Buchanan and is the granddaughter of Bob and Martha Myers.

Bethware Fair catalogs are off the press and this year's edition is dedicated to the late building contractor Marion Dixon.

Progressive Club President Stokes Wright said the fair will open at 6 p.m. with family night on July 28 and close at midnight on August 1. Judging of all exhibits will take place on July 29. Games and contests for children, midway rides, shows, exhibits, and concessions will be featured. Glenn Hicks and Marshall Jones are co-managers. Admission is free.

Canned goods, pantry and dairy supplies, household arts, crafts and hobbies and the floral department are expected to draw record entries. Betty White is director and Louise McSwain is assistant director of the women's department. Cash prizes will be awarded to the winners in all categories.
