The Wagon Wheelers perform at White Oak

The Wagon Wheelers Square Dance Club entertained residents of the White Oak Nursing Home in Kings Mountain on August 6 with their western attire and square dancing. Residents enjoyed watching and clapped to the music as caller, Bill Stroupe of Cherryville, guided the dancers around the floor.

The Wagon Wheelers were founded in 1959 by the late Louis Calhoun. It is a nonprofit organization and is sponsored by the Shelby Parks and Recreation Department. It is also a member of the NC Round, Folk, & Square Dance Federation.

Beginner square dance lessons will begin September 28 and introductory lessons are free. Persons interested in lessons or those needing entertainment for charitable or community events may contact the Presidents of the club, Larry and Linda Moss at 739-2386, or Janice and Arnie Horn, Chairmen of the Membership Committee, at 739-3219. The club serves the surrounding communities by providing entertainment at charitable events, fairs, assisted living homes, Livermush Expo, and other community events.

The club also supports Hospice of Cleveland County, and in a year has donated $1,000 to them by having special dances and events for fund raising.

The Wagon Wheelers will have an open house/orientation Saturday, September 5 at the Cleveland County Office Building on S. Post Road (Highway 180) in Shelby. The public is invited to attend, watch the dancers perform, clap and sing along, and enjoy refreshments. No alcoholic beverages will be allowed.
