CRISIS PREGNANCY CENTER

Fall busy time in county

This fall, I am working with Cleveland Community College as a host for the Grantmanship Seminar October 19-23.

The facilitator for this seminar is the Grantmanship Center of Los Angeles. Participants learn all the ins and outs of getting grant funding - how to write a grant proposal, how to approach a funder and how to negotiate with funding sources.

More organizations are having to rely on grant money. This trend is likely to continue so many people can benefit from this week long workshop.

The workshop will be at Cleveland Community College October 19-23, 8 a.m.-5 p.m. each day. Cost is $595. All participants receive a notebook full of information on where to find grants. For a brochure and more information, call me at 476-3012.

■ Fall also ushers in a busy season for Cleveland County. In September as part of the

In October, Cleveland County will host its annual Health and Benefits Fair for employees at the county auditorium. Employees can learn ways to improve their health while enjoying healthy food. All participants have their cholesterol, blood pressure and weight checked. The Personnel Department hosts this fair as a way to encourage employees to take better care of themselves.

If you have any questions about county government, call me at 476-3012.
