

Letters to Santa

Santa letters from Mrs. Jarrett's fourth grade at East Elementary School.
 Dear Santa,
 I pray that I am on your list this Christmas. My two brothers and I have been good and can't wait for Christmas. We would like Play Station games and surprises and a Nintendo 64 for the whole family. I am putting out secret food for Rudolph.
 Andy Allen

Dear Santa,
 I would like a Girl Spy, a new bike because the one I have has a flat tire and can't be repaired. Will you bring my mother some clothes, shoes and jewelry and my Dad some tools, clothes, and shoes and my sister a new radio, some tapes and a pocket book. I am counting on you to come to my house and I will have some cookies and milk out for you. Write a letter if you can't eat chocolate and we will bake a different cookie.
 Brittany Allen

Dear Santa,
 I hope it's not too late to write my Christmas list but here it is: a pool table so my Dad and I can play together. I also want a gun to go hunting, a Boxer bulldog, a Dan Marino jacket and to pacify Mom a locker so my room won't look like a tornado went through. Please, Santa, no snow this year. I am going to the beach the Monday after Christmas. Also, you can keep all these things if you will give good health to my great grandmother. I will leave Rudolph a treat in the yard.
 Kyle Byars

Dear Santa,
 I have a fairly long list for Christmas. I would like a trick bike for my brothers, Todd and Gregory; a house for my Dad, a workshop for my smallest brother, Furman, a new car and house for Mom and Grandma Mary, a driver's license for my Grandma and Dad. I will leave you a present, cookies and milk and Magic reindeer food for Rudolph.
 Courtney Thompson

Dear Santa,
 I only want a few things for Christmas: new cars for my parents and brother, a bike and gocart for my brother and a new puppy for my sister. I also want a puppy.
 Angel Watson

Dear Santa,
 Please bring me a Sony Play Station and surprises. We made Magic Reindeer food in our classroom. If you don't come to my house your reindeer may starve.
 Kristie Syda

Dear Santa,
 I know people don't believe in you but I believe in you in my heart. You are very polite to deliver all those great gifts around the world. My teacher is teaching us good manners. I like to get together and celebrate with family and friends. You are the best thing children can ever have. I can't wait until you come to visit me. Thank you Santa for making dreams come true.
 Heather Wright

Dear Santa,
 How do you make those spectacular toys? Is the North Pole cold? I don't know what I want for Christmas but surprises please. I heard in my class if you sprinkle Magic Reindeer Food on the lawn Rudolph will come to my house. He will eat the oatmeal that is in the food. I have a whole quart bag of food for Rudolph.
 Daniel McAbee

Dear Santa,
 I would like a Furby for Christmas and my Mom has been calling everyday and all Furbys are sold out. Santa, I would like to stay up one Christmas Eve and see you and your eight reindeer. While I am asleep your reindeer can eat my Magic Reindeer food. You can eat the cookies and milk.
 Marie Bowen
